U. S. Mediator Demands Delay in Telephone Strike; Will Probe Dispute; S.P. Shopmen Walk Out in Local Yards

OFFICIALS MAY FORCE OPERATION OF LINES

Weight of Administration Is Thrown Into Dispute to Keep Service Open; Men Are Firm

COMPANY MUST RECOGNIZE, THEY SAY

Unions on Coast Wait Word from San Francisco, as Reed Seeks Compromise in Quarrel

With all the weight of the United States administration thrown into the scales to prevent a strike that will tie up telephone communication throughout the Pacific Coast, two conferences today resulted in final action being deferred, for a few days at least.

Verner Z. Reed, who rushed to San Francisco from Arizona, where, with Secretary of Labor Wilson he has been trying to settle labor difficulties with the representatives of the electrical workers at the Hotel Sutter, Immigration Commissioner Edward White and his assistant, William T. Boyce, being present.

Reed laid down an ultimatum to the electrical workers demanding that the strike slated for midnight tonight be deferred to give him an opportunity to go into both sides of the controversy, and it was learned that there was intimation made by him that the electrical workers and operators would be subject to conscription and that the government would be compelled to take over the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company's system and operate it as a public utility for the government.

Reed said:

HAS AUTHORITY TO ADJUST OR FORCE

"Our commission has the authority to settle strikes and fully intends to settle them, but we prefer to follow the government policy of adjustment, if possible, before the strike."

Reed, his associates and his secretary then left the Hotel Sutter for a conference with General Superintendent B. B. Fullerton and representatives of the telephone company set for noon at the St. Francis Hotel. At the conclusion of the conference with the electrical workers, Reed said:

"The president is much concerned over the labor troubles in the Rocky Mountain and Pacific Coast States and any labor trouble which may in any way effect the continued and active preparation for the defense of the nation, either at home or abroad. He has given this commission absolute and unlimited authority which it will use if the occasion demands it. You may say for me that the telephone strike will be adjusted, or at least deferred until an adjustment can be reached, and there will be no walkout at midnight."

INTIMIDATION, SAY ELECTRICAL WORKERS

Labor leaders identified with the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, said after the conference:

"Mr. Reed's ultimatum was dangerously close to intimidation. We are willing to concede some of the points, perhaps, but the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company must recognize the operators' union. The wage scale can be taken up later, but if by 6 o'clock tonight the company has not indicated to us direct, or to Mr. Reed, that it will recognize the union, the strike is inevitable."

SAN FRANCISCO WILL DECIDE FOR NORTH

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 31.—Southern California electrical workers and girl telephone operators will strike tonight if so ordered from San Francisco. "Everything now depends upon the San Francisco conference," said Harry F. Warner, leader of the organization here, "and if the strike order comes about 600 electrical workers and 1200 girls are expected to walk out in Los Angeles."

CONDITIONS ARE SAME IN SOUTH

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 31.—Local officials of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company were reticent today regarding the girl operators' strike. However, they admitted conditions in this district were the same as those along the entire coast.

SEATTLE WAITS WORD FOR GIRLS' WALKOUT

SEATTLE, Oct. 31.—Only word from San Francisco that officials of the telephone company have met the demands of unionized girl operators and conceded other demands of electricians will prevent a telephone strike here tonight, was the declaration today by union officials in Seattle.

Developments in Strike Situation Rapid About Bay

United States Department of Labor takes hand in telephone dispute. Conferences are held between Verner Z. Reed, federal mediator, operators' and electricians' unions, and telephone heads. Reed declares lines will be kept open, even if government is compelled to force workers to handle them. He hopes, however, for compromise.

Three hundred men are on strike in the Oakland Southern Pacific car yards, and union leaders claim 900 will be out by tonight. Sacramento and Los Angeles workers are awaiting word to strike, according to reports from those cities. Police guards have been ordered to watch the West Oakland yards.

Members of the Switchmen's Union of North America will demand a 50 per cent wage raise, threatening a general strike throughout the United States. The demand is to be made to all railroads.

Switchmen Ask Raise; 50 Per Cent

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—Members of the Switchmen's Union of North America are today preparing to submit to all railroads in the United States demands for a 50 per cent increase in wages, according to a decision reached at the conference of representatives of the union here.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—Congressman Adamson of Georgia, who framed the railroad eight-hour law, today declared positively that there would be no interruption of trains because of a switchmen's strike, as threatened in Chicago. "There may be a strike," he said, "but there will be no tieup. You can state that positively. I know that the United States is serious in its determination that there will be nothing that will hamper war work. If necessary, troops will be placed on trains and in yards. I would be the last man to deny the right of workers to strike, but if they do strike now they will have to make way for men who will keep trains moving."

Congressman Adamson is here as a member of the joint Congressional committee holding hearings on transportation problems.

IS NEW VICTIM?

VAN NUYS, Cal., Oct. 31.—Search for the body of a second missing boy was begun today in the Tejunga wash, near here, following the discovery yesterday of Edward Anderson, 14 years old, in a shallow grave which the police said he probably had helped dig.

A San Diego boy known to the police here with whom young Anderson left home ten days ago to dig "a pirate cave" is being sought, the police said.

The second missing boy is John Meehan, who disappeared the same day Anderson left.

Anderson's body was found in what apparently was the unfinished "pirate cave" he and his companion intended digging. A small calibre rifle he took with him has not been found.

An inquest over the body was ordered held today. The police said a deep wound on the boy's head might have been made with a pick-axe.

ESCAPES MEXICO

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 31.—Following his daring escape from a hospital in Chihuahua City, where he was a prisoner of the Carranza government, Luiz Terrazas III, son of the exiled Mexican millionaire, has made his way safely out of Mexico and is en route here, according to word received here today by relatives. Terrazas III had been sentenced to death but later had the sentence commuted to life imprisonment.

NO EXECUTIONS

PETROGRAD, Oct. 31.—The newspaper Rabotchaya Gazeta reproduces the text of a telegram sent by Premier Kerensky prohibiting until further orders the carrying out of death sentences at the front.

COSSACKS ON JURY

PETROGRAD, Oct. 31.—The request of the Siberian Cossacks that they be given representations on the jury which will try General Korniloff, leader of the recent abortive revolt, has been granted by the government.

300 MEN IN STRIKE FOR HIGHER PAY

West Oakland Mechanics Quit, Following Taking of Vote; 900 Men Will Be Affected

Sacramento and Roseville Also to Act; Tie-Up of Car Repair Operations May Be Result

Three hundred shop mechanics laid down their tools and walked out of the Southern Pacific shops in West Oakland here today, as a result of the alleged refusal of the company to recognize a recently organized union, according to a statement made at labor headquarters. Railroad officials assert that only a few men walked out.

Union officials believe the strike will affect 900 men by nightfall in this city, 500 in Sacramento and 200 in Roseville.

The strike affects carpenters, unskilled laborers, car repairers, assistants of both crafts and many others not definitely classified but included within the union membership. The men at a meeting Sunday night, delivered an ultimatum which expired this morning. Police have been detailed by Chief of Police Henry Nedderman to guard the West Oakland yards at two entrances, but so far no trouble has occurred.

BUSINESS AGENTS DIRECT ORGANIZATION

William A. Spooner of the Central Labor Council, accompanied by W. D. Castro, business agent, is in Sacramento aiding in the work of organizing the men there. Spooner has completed his work at Roseville and will return tomorrow to Oakland. According to labor heads, the strike will paralyze repair work. Many of the cars have been going out unwashed as a result of trouble with window washers.

The men who struck today sent a previous wage plea to the Southern Pacific Company some time ago. The request for the increase was "lost in transit," they say, and a second request was submitted. The company refused to grant union recognition, according to the strikers.

DELEGATION CONFERS WITH SHOP HEAD

Yesterday a delegation of the machinists affected held a conference with Master Mechanic Kines of the Southern Pacific company. On account of affiliations with the Iron Trades Council in San Francisco which is a party to the Federal mediation plan of wage adjustment, the men were accorded recognition, they say. The mechanic's organization however, was left out in the cold.

A considerable number of men reported for work this morning at the Southern Pacific shops. Many of them, however, walked out later in the day.

Vice-President and General Manager W. R. Scott made the following statement with reference to the reported strike in the Southern Pacific's Oakland shops:

"While some men failed to appear for work at our shops in Oakland this morning, this number was not large enough to assume the proportions of a strike or a walkout and we have been caused no inconvenience by their actions. Our men have made no demands upon us and there is no dissatisfaction in any other quarter. Those who are not at work in Oakland have simply followed Castro. Of course such numbers as have been represented as being out are absurd."

In the absence of Organizer W. E. Castro and Secretary William Spooner of the Central Labor Council, S. W. Lore, editor of the Tri-City Labor Review, the official organ of labor, said this afternoon:

"Some three hundred and twenty men did not go to work this morning in the West Oakland shops of the Southern Pacific, remaining out as members of the Federation of Railroad Shop and Yards Employees. During the morning nearly three hundred more appeared at the headquarters at Alcatraz Hall and signed the membership roll. There are now approximately 600 employees out in Oakland.

"The situation threatens any moment to involve the machinists, who will not work in the shops, if nonunion men are put in by the company."

NO STRIKE IN CAPITAL, SAYS S. P.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 31.—No formal demands have been presented to Southern Pacific officials here by the newly organized Federated Shop and Yard Employees' Union, according to a statement made today at the office of A. D. Williams, superintendent of motive power. All employees in the shops and yards reported for duty at the usual hour today and the company had received no intimation of a threat to strike, it was said.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 31.—No strike call has been issued to shop men here, according to Southern Pacific officials, who said today they had no knowledge of the men's intentions.

ELIMINATE DEATHS

PETROGRAD, Oct. 31.—Premier Kerensky today announced a prohibition against imposing the death penalty on troops at the front.

D. C. DUTTON IS ENDORSED FOR MAYOR

Recall Committee Unanimously Decides On Its Candidate to Run for Davie's Place

Speakers Score the Attitude of Executive on Liberty Loan, Waterfront and Dictatorship

At a rousing meeting at Starr King Hall last night, the recall committee which is seeking the elimination of Mayor John L. Davie from office, endorsed, without a dissenting voice, the candidacy of David C. Dutton at the special election which is to be held December 4. The meeting was attended by representatives of business men, civic and improvement workers, and private citizens.

The assembly buried the political hatchet so far as the committee itself is concerned. Intimations of opposition by the proponents of different candidates who have entered the field failed to develop into anything tangible last night.

Dutton was nominated after a speech from the floor by Herbert Hauser in which he praised the recall candidate as a man without political affiliations or obligations and urged his support.

Herbert Graham, secretary of the committee, read its report on the recall situation and the causes leading up to it. He declared that no political or unworthy purpose underlay the move, but that it had gone off from "spontaneous protest" because it was deemed that the city was in danger.

ATTACKS ATTITUDE OF MAYOR DAVIE

He attacked the mayor's attitude in matters of public import as "camouflage" and "cuttle-fishing" and labeled the western waterfront "mix-up" as a "deal." He said:

"The mayor is throwing dust in your eyes in his claims that he has ever done for the public was to insult it when it went to see him and chase it out of his office.

"The mayor has a habit of making wild statements he can't prove. He says he saved $500,000 a year in salaries. Where? We have asked him to show us and he can't do it. He claims the recall is wasting $30,000 of the public's money. Commissioner Edwards has admitted that one error of the mayor's alone has already cost the city $30,000, so there you are. In addition we are putting in our time and money for the good of the city. We are not making anything out of the deal. As a matter of fact we are $780 in the hole."

Henry C. McPike, prominent attorney, made a brief talk on the purposes and legal standing of the recall. Aristides he noted as the first public character to be recalled, and declared that the recall was a failure only when used improperly. The present occasion he argued demanded its use along conservative lines.

"Thinking people want a change," he said.

WOMEN OBJECT TO RULE BY DICTATOR

Mrs. Sarah C. Borland of East Oakland, one of the most influential representatives of the improvement clubs of her district, informed the members of the committee that the women of Oakland were in favor of the recall because the city government was being run by a dictator instead of the man the women helped elect to office. She said:

"Some of us don't approve of recalls. They are too often the instruments of petty and political ambitions. But we felt so strongly in this case that the good of the city needed it that we were willing to go behind it. The inefficiency and waste in the city hall must be stopped. I think the women should take this opportunity to put the city in better condition by installing a man competent to do his work as mayor."

Answering charges that estuary leaseholders had promoted and financed the recall, Mrs. Borland said that Mayor Davie had first blamed the Chinese gamblers, then the saloons, then the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways, and was now

BRITISH AIR RAIDS

LONDON, Oct. 31.—In the past forty-eight hours British naval planes have carried out the greatest series of raids since the start of the war, according to authoritative information obtained late today by the United States. It was said that 200 or more bombs had been dropped by the R. N. A. S. flyers.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—An enemy aeroplane made an unsuccessful raid on the Kentish coast at 4:30 o'clock this morning, according to official announcement.

When engaged by coast defense guns, the plane immediately fled, dropping its bombs into the sea.

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 31.—The stained glass windows of the Cologne Cathedral, according to German newspapers are being replaced with plain glass as a precaution in case of air raids.

The Cologne Cathedral is one of the most magnificient Gothic edifices in the world. Some of its stained glass among the finest examples of early are among the finest examples of early sixteenth century art.

$1,000,000 PLANT WILL COME HERE

Fifteen-Acre Site Purchased by American Can Company for Great Factory; Work to Start

One Thousand Men Will Be Employed; All Details for New Establishment Complete

Predicating the investment of more than $1,000,000 in Oakland within the next few months, the American Can Company of San Francisco, the largest concern of its kind on the coast, has just purchased fifteen acres of land south of the Southern Pacific railroad on the Oakland estuary, between Park street and Fruitvale avenue, for the establishment of a new plant.

The transaction was closed today. The land which comprises what is known as the Derby estate, was closed out by the Harold C. Havens company of Berkeley at a price said to be $85,000. The American Can Company will erect modern factory buildings of steel and concrete, offices and warehouses. There will be more than 1,000 men on the payroll.

Work on the new factory has been ordered rushed to completion.

3 Reports In Terminal Wage Hearing

Findings of the board of arbitration, which during the last two months has considered the controversy between street car platform men and the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways will include two majority reports at the conclusion of the deliberations late tonight, according to report from an authentic source. The board is meeting late today in its final session.

That one minority report will recommend an increase of the existing schedule of salaries of approximately 1½ cents an hour with shorter shifts of labor, was rumored today. On the other hand it is said that another report dealing with the alleged financial ability of the company to grant an increase will also be filed, while a general report, concurring to a certain extent with the other two, will wind up the duties of the arbitration board. The board is composed of Paul Sinsheimer, chairman; John S. Drum, representing the company, and George Kaufman, chosen by the platform men. It is said that Kaufman holds out for the increase wage schedule.

SHIFT IN AIRMEN

PARIS, Oct. 31.—Lieutenant William Thaw of Pittsburg may succeed Captain Thenault, the French army officer, as commander of the Lafayette escadrille, if present plans go through. Captain Thenault has been in continuous command of the group of American aviators almost since the then Sergeant Thaw organized it as an exclusively American unit. The Frenchman is now in need of a rest and it is reported that Lieutenant Thaw will be placed in direct command during the captain's absence and that if things run smoothly, the position will be made permanent.

Sub-Lieutenant Raoul Givas Lufbury of Walingford, Conn., who has officially shot down fourteen German aeroplanes, has already been recommended for a full lieutenancy and it is expected that he will be made second in command to Lieutenant Thaw.

LEASE PROPOSED

Proposal for the leasing of forty-two acres of land on the western waterfront to the Union Construction Company was made to the City Council today in a resolution offered by Commissioner F. F. Morse, which raised a discussion over the question of where the money can be obtained by the city to pay for its share of extensive dredging that must be done in fulfillment of any contract that may be entered into.

After debating the matter for half an hour it was decided to refer back the resolution to Morse and the city attorney in order that it may be revised to include a lesser outlay of money by the city this year.

The bonds carry four and one-half per cent interest. They will be used to provide 23 new school buildings, one of them a high school containing 183 class rooms.

1000 ARE LOST

LONDON, Oct. 31.—One thousand British Indian natives are believed to have been drowned at Durban, Natal, according to a Central News despatch from Johannesburg, Union of South Africa, today.

No details have been received from any source to indicate the nature of the calamity reported in Johannesburg advices.

TO UNIFY PARTY

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 31.—Official despatches from Rome, received here, say the Socialist parliamentary group has decided formally that all party lines must be forgotten in the present emergency and full support be given to the government to carry on the war to a successful conclusion.

The same ideas are expressed in Catholic circles.

Vaccine Serum Is Used in Plot to Kill U. S. Soldiers

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 31.—A nation-wide plot to kill American soldiers and sailors by poisoning vaccine serum with tetanus germs was believed to have been uncovered here today, following five deaths from tetanus traceable to vaccinations.

This theory gained strength with the receipt of a message from Washington ordering a ban on the sale of vaccination "points" used to effect vaccination.

Germans, in New Mutiny, Are Quelled

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 31.—According to the newspaper Les Novelelles, a serious mutiny has occurred among German soldiers at the Beverloo camp in Belgium. The men, it is said, refused to go to the front and damaged their guns in some cases, while others fired on their officers, several of whom were wounded.

The mutineers were finally mastered and removed on cattle trucks.

The frontier guard at Brouchot, according to the same authority, deserted on October 15.

PARIS, Oct. 31.—A German attack in the Argonne last night was beaten off by the French, the war office announced today. An artillery battle is in progress over the front of the recent French attack north of the Aisne.

"Enemy aviators threw down thirty bombs last night on Dunkirk," the announcement adds. Neither victims nor important material losses have been reported up to the present.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—German troops failed to make any further counter-attacks against newly-gained British positions on the Passchendaele ridge last night. Field Marshal Haig reported today. There was, however, considerable enemy artillery fire directed against the captured British lines.

LOSSES BY HAIG IN FLANDERS DRIVE

Field Marshal Haig's great gains in Flanders during the last month were attained at less cost in men than during the fighting of September, according to casualty lists published today. The total of all casualties for the month was 83,558. In September it was 105,420; in August, 60,373; in July, 71,899.

The detailed October figures were:

	Killed	Wounded	Missing	Total
Officers	1,498	3,864	338	5,700
Men	15,618	57,578	4,662	77,858
Totals	17,116	61,442	5,000	83,558

The figures show, however, that the number of officers killed and wounded and missing is higher than for the last three months.

BAVARIANS BEATEN BACK BY BRITISH

BRITISH FRONT IN FRANCE, Oct. 31.—The forces of Crown Prince Ruprecht of Bavaria today suffered another stinging defeat when the British reached out across a sea of mud and wrenched away still more of the few remaining defenses of the enemy's Passchendaele system. It has been another proud day for Canada. Her troops today were sitting almost at the gates of Passchendaele, and from their positions astride the Broodseinde-Passchendaele highway along the ridge they could see only 400 yards away the great church which stands in the center of the village.

While the Canadians were battling their way forward here in the face of fierce resistance from the Bavarians, comrades on their left were hammering their way along the Meetcheele or Bellevue spur to points which seem to have carried them well beyond the hamlet of Meetcheele and the next machine gun defense with which the elevation is covered. There was sanguinary fighting in both sections. The German losses were heavy and the men from overseas did not achieve their triumph without some cost in casualties.

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 31.—A storm of opposition already has developed in Germany to the appointment of Count von Hertling as chancellor, according to advices reaching here today.

The Socialists and Liberals are flatly against him because of his known stand against parliamentary government. The fact that the emperor did not consult any representatives of the Reichstag on political conditions before the appointment has added to the antagonism of a large number of the members of that body.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Berlin despatches received here by way of Switzerland say that Emperor William, through the head of the civil cabinet, has informed the majority leaders in the Reichstag that he will make a definite decision during the coming week on the subject of the government's policy.

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 31.—Count George von Hertling, who has been appointed to succeed Dr. Michaelis as German imperial chancellor, was for years the leader of the Catholic Center in the Reichstag. He was on of the few forcible and first grade personalities among the non-Socialist representatives.

Even after his retirement from the Reichstag to become premier of Bavaria, the count remained one of the guiding influences of the Catholic party and as head of the government of the second largest federal state he has played an important role in imperial affairs during the war. He supported chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg against the conservative campaign for a long time and when he withdrew his support von Bethmann-Hollweg fell.

PARIS, Oct. 31.—French and British armies are rushing to the aid of the Italians.

Paris expects one of the greatest battles of the war to be fought on the Italian plains.

M. Jules Cambon of the foreign office expressed his firm conviction that the Italians, with this allied assistance, would succeed in stopping the Austro-German invasion.

ROME, Oct. 31.—General Cadorna is lining up his forces for a determined stand against the German and Austro-Hungarian armies along the Tagliamento river. Despatches from the front this afternoon declared that the Italian commander is master of the situation now and that he is checking the enemy in effective fashion. Italian cavalry forces continue to harass and hold up advance Austro-Hungarians.

Newspapers today point to the fact that the Germans have ceased citing the number of prisoners captured. It is declared that this shows that the Italians have recovered from their first panic and that the enemy is not making the progress that he did for the first day or two of the drive.

Great confidence is expressed by all of the papers in General Cadorna. The gravity of the situation is not minimized but the writers express great faith in the Italian leader's plan of campaign.

ITALIANS ENGAGE INVADING TEUTONS

There were various hill and canal engagements between the Italians and the invading Austro-German troops yesterday says the war office announcement today. The Italian covering units and cavalry permitted the other troops to continue their move towards their new line.

Rome expects the great Austro-German drive to come to a halt on the flood-swollen banks of the Tagliamento river.

Reports from the front today declared the river was a roaring torrent which it was confidently believed would offer a formidable barrier of defense for the Italians now being withdrawn in orderly array to its banks.

French and British gunners, co-operating with the Italian troops, have been of tremendous moral support to General Cadorna's men.

MILITARY ROADS AID THE GERMANS

The excellence of the military roads constructed in Austrian territory, which Cadorna seized last summer, has been of immense aid to the enemy. The network of these highways has afforded the Austro-Germans quick means of concentrating men and supplies.

The strongest proof of how Italy is now rallying to the cause of repelling the invader was furnished in the quick formation of a coalition cabinet. Practically all parties threw aside their political differences and joined in this ministry. Particularly emphatic was the response of the Socialists—the party which forced the downfall of the Boselli cabinet.

As formed, the cabinet includes these officers: Premier and minister of the interior, Vittorio Orlando; minister of foreign affairs, Baron Sonnino; minister of war, General Alfieri; minister of finance, Signor Meda; minister of pensions, Signor Bissolati, minister of the treasury, Signor Nitti.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—The eyes of the world are turned today on the Venetian plains in Italy centering on the Tagliamento river, where there is every reason to believe the greatest battle in the history of the war soon will be fought. The Teutonic army already in possession of Udine, today continued its march toward the river. Another German movement is on the north where Von Buelow's forces have almost reached the upper Tagliamento river.

Along the Tagliamento river and not far from Udine, General Cadorna's forces are slowly retreating. Burning their bridges behind them, exercising a rear-guard check to the enemy and fording the swollen stream wherever possible, the retreat is slow but certain.

BERLIN, via London, Oct. 31.—The campaign of the Italian front is being developed in accordance with the intention of the Austro-German leaders, the war office reports.

BALTIMORE FIRE HELD SPIES' PLOT

BALTIMORE, Oct. 31. — Twelve men are unaccounted for and it is certain the damage will run higher than $5,000,000 in the fire that swept Baltimore & Ohio piers here early today, according to the latest reports.

Secret service operatives and the police repeated assertions that pro-German agents probably were responsible for the fire when a second blaze sprang up in the shops of the railway at Riverside, today more than a mile from the piers.

Five of the men believed dead were workmen on the piers. Two are unaccounted for among fifteen of the crew of the British steamer Kerry Range. They leaped overboard when the flames swept from the piers to the vessel.

Explosions punctuated efforts of Baltimore's fighting force. Piled on the piers waiting steamships were many cases of ammunition, which detonated as the flames reached them. Foodstuffs went up in smoke—food that was to have gone to the allies of America in France.

Secret service agents and the police are combing the city and its environs today in a hunt for men seen running from the piers shortly after a policeman turned in a general fire alarm. They are believed to have started the fire.

Only by heroic work did the firemen save huge elevators of the Baltimore & Ohio railway, which are laden to their capacity with grain.

Officials of the Baltimore & Ohio this morning fixed the loss at $5,000,000. This is covered partly by the railroad's replacement fund and insurance.

The fire was spectacular, the blaze illuminating the country for miles around.

President Davis of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, after visiting the fire this morning, said:

"Without a doubt the fire was of incendiary origin. I believe the man or men who started the blaze came to the piers in boats."

DUTTON ENDORSED FOR DAVIE'S PLACE

trying to bring the estuary leaseholders into it. She said:

"Statements have been made to the effect that this campaign is being financed by estuary leaseholders. I wish to say that I know where every dollar contributed to the campaign fund has come from and the entire amount contributed by everybody who could have any possible interest in the estuary leases was $100. No money, in any amount, was received from any improper source."

John Gelder, father of Assemblyman George Gelder and a West Oakland property owner, expressed what he termed the sentiments of his section in plain terms. He said:

"You have been flimflammed by Davie in the past and you are going to be again. Davie is the biggest four-flusher that ever sat in a mayoralty chair. His attitude in the matter of the Liberty Loan drive is sufficient to recall him. Think of it! Invited to speak on the Liberty loan, he forgets all about the national issue and talks on the recall—with his country in need.

DEAL IS ALLEGED ON WESTERN WATERFRONT

"A deal has been made on the western waterfront and you are going to have it tied up in the supreme court before you get through. How do I know? Because I know Davie. He claims a reduction in taxes. Go look at the tax books. The man eats gold. He has Baron Munchausen beaten at his own game. His attitude on the Liberty loan, his failure on the tax question and his violation of the Constitution of the United States, which guarantees political and religious freedom, ought to recall him in any community—even Mexico, which he is so fond of quoting."

Gelder concluded his address by urging the members not to concentrate on one candidate.

"The more there are in the field," he said, "the more votes will be pulled out for the recall. After the mayor is recalled, you can get together on one candidate. You must not forget that there are two elections to be figured on—not one."

Chairman C. H. Johnson, who presided at the meeting, in filing the report of the committee, said that it was at first anticipated that Commissioner Morse would be a candidate for recall, and that notwithstanding his withdrawal, he was heartily in sympathy with the purposes of the recall itself.

Dutton headquarters were opened today in offices on the tenth floor of the First Savings Bank building, Fifteenth and San Pablo avenue. A. G. Myram was placed in charge of the headquarters as campaign manager.

Mayor Davie and Commissioner Edwards will speak tonight in West Oakland in the hall at Seventh and Peralta streets, and tomorrow night at a mass meeting at the Municipal Auditorium.

John Calvin Taylor will speak tonight at a meeting called by the Socialists to discuss the recall situation and to launch Taylor's campaign for mayor. The meeting will be at Blake Hall, 529 Twelfth street.

OXMAN AGAIN IS IN BOMB CASE

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31. — Although Frank Oxman, Durkee, Oregon, cattleman, was asked a week ago to come here to testify in the trial of Israel Weinberg, charged with murder in connection with the preparedness day parade bomb case, he has failed to appear, it was announced today by Assistant District Attorney Ferrari.

Oxman, the witness whose testimony admittedly caused the conviction of Thomas J. Mooney, had declared he saw an automobile, which the State contends was Weinberg's jitney bus, drive up to the scene of the explosion shortly before the blast.

The police continued as witnesses today, presenting the State's formal case. This afternoon the battle to get admitted into evidence moving pictures of the scene of horror immediately after the blast was admitted. These pictures were made by Louis Hutt for a pictorial weekly.

POLICE WILL TEST HEADLIGHT LENSES

BY EDMUND CRINNION.

Tomorrow night will be testing night for the various make automobile headlight lenses on the market at the Oakland police station in Clay street and, according to Corporal J. G. Wallmann, head of the traffic department of the Oakland police, lenses that can meet the requirements of the State law will be given recognition and clearance cards.

It is expected that the representatives of the various make lenses will be on hand with cars equipped with their respective lenses in order to show what the lenses can and will do when properly adjusted.

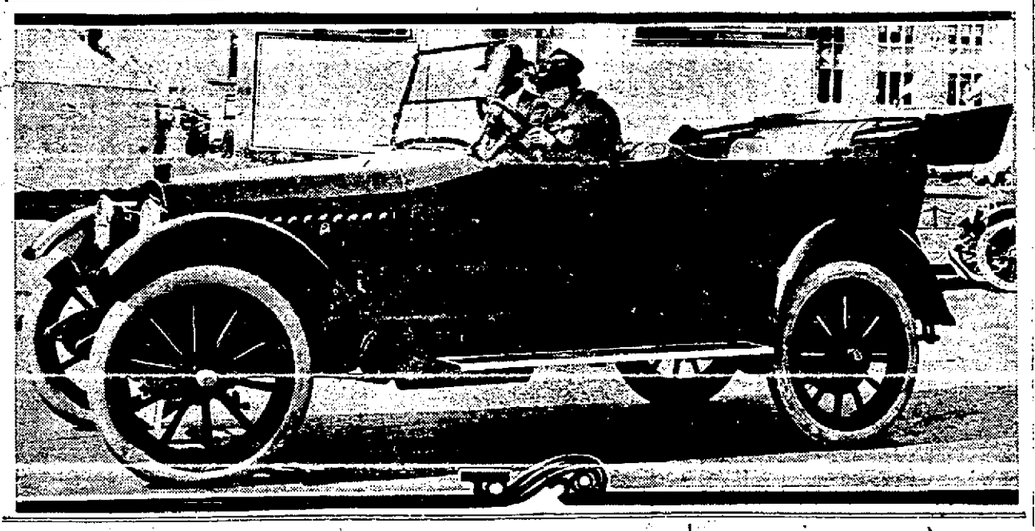

From now on Corporal Wallmann will take the local automobile testing station under his own personal observation and will have his men so instructed that every automobile owner will be treated on the same equitable basis no matter what kind of a lens his car is equipped with, and people with lenses on their cars can get their lamps tested with the lenses on, except in cases where the lens is of a diffusing type and is badly out of focus requiring the lamp to be removed for adjustment.

According to Corporal Wallmann, the importance of testing automobile lights and enforcing the new law is putting so much work on the one test station in Clay street that within a few days he will open two more stations, one in Melrose and the other in the northern district, for the convenience of automobile owners.

Wallmann states there has been no arrests made of any car equipped with lenses up to the present time in this city and people with their cars so equipped can feel safe in using them. He suggests, however, that all such persons bring their cars to the police test station within the next few days and see whether the lights are right or not. In this connection it is well for motor car owners to understand that the mere possession of lenses does not mean the owner of the car is complying with the law. The lights must be adjusted properly, lens or no lens, and in order to make it perfectly clear to the motoring public the tests stations will assist them in getting the proper concentration of light and show them how to comply with the law. The police officials can not, however, do the actual mechanical work of adjusting the lights for the owners, but they can and will tell the owners when their lamps are right or wrong and if wrong what to do to correct them.

This attitude on the part of the police officials will do much to clear up the misunderstanding of the new State headlight statute and motorists of Alameda county will feel pleased that the police department of Oakland will be the first police department of the State to actually co-operate with the motorists in complying with the requirements of this new law.

Nailing a Lie—Cold!

WE have read letters from Chalmers Distributors in which they have stated that competitors were saying to present owners of Chalmers cars, and to prospective buyers, generally, that the manufacture of Chalmers cars would be discontinued.

There are thirty (30) automobile companies recognized by the general trade that manufacture and sell Touring Cars and Roadsters at retail prices between $1,100 and $1,500. We haven't heard that all of these companies, or any one of them, were going to discontinue production or quit business. Why, then, should the Chalmers, with a better car than many others in this class of 30 manufacturers, stop production?

WE MAKE A PROPHECY, and will authorize our Distributors to back it up with $200,000 of our money; that the Chalmers Company under the Maxwell Management, will stand ahead of 15 of these companies in production in 1918, and the Chalmers Company will stand ahead of 20 of these companies in production in 1919. This doesn't look as though we expected to discontinue making Chalmers cars.

The reason some people are trying to disturb the present Chalmers owners is to scare them about service so as to get a better "trade-in" on their Chalmers.

The reason for circulating such a story generally would be to prevent the prospective purchaser from inspecting a Chalmers car, because if a prospective buyer of an automobile will look at and ride in the present Chalmers models he will be very apt to buy one. It is the best car selling at $1365 that we know of.

This is one reason why Chalmers cars will continue to be made, not only in 1918, but in 1919, 1920 and other years.

Another reason is that the Maxwell organization has told the general Public that Chalmers cars would be produced in larger quantities than ever before and we have a way of making good with the public on sales and production.

MAXWELL STARTS ON ECONOMY RUN

Starting on schedule time yesterday from the city hall in Oakland, the economy test Maxwell car was speeded on its way by city officials and many guesses were recorded by spectators as to the mileage and length of time the sturdy car will run on the 50-gallon tank of gasoline.

The idea back of the run is to bring to the public's attention the economical operation of the new Maxwell cars. The Western Motors Co., which distributes the Maxwell cars here, is to give a $50 Liberty Bond to the person guessing the exact mileage and time the car will run on the 50-gallons of gasoline. The privilege of guessing is free to all and entails no obligations. While it is true that only one person can win the bond, there is no telling who that one will be so the local company is urging all to get in and record their guesses.

Caution is also given to the public in the matter of filling out the blanks recording the guesses. Many of the blanks turned in yesterday were improperly filled out.

Some neglected to state the number of miles to the gallon they believed the car would run. Others left off their addresses. Naturally these guesses will have to be thrown out but those who made them yesterday can fill out another blank. There is a coupon printed in this issue of The TRIBUNE in connection with the company's advertisement which can be filled and mailed in to the company by anyone wishing to get a chance on winning the Liberty Bond.

The car was started by Joseph E. Caine of the Oakland chamber of commerce and the writer after the gasoline tank had been sealed. The filling of the tank was officially certified to by the office of the city superintendent of weights and measures and the supply of gasoline was taken from one of the Standard Oil Co.'s tank wagons and an additional check on the amount was given by the Standard Oil Co. representatives.

G. C. Ginn of the Western Motors Co. took the first relay at the wheel of the car, which was headed down the peninsula toward San Jose on the first leg of the economy contest. The car will maintain a steady touring pace about that approximated by the average Maxwell car driver. The roads to be followed will be average road conditions in this territory.

The car will run steadily until the gasoline supply gives out. The mileage reading will then be taken and the exact time recorded. The information secured thereby will be the basis for making the Liberty Bond award.

General Manager Alvies of the Western Motors Co. and Oakland Manager Smith and Advertising Director Carsey were in evidence yesterday at the start of the test and it is evident that the local company officials are very much interested in the showing the new Maxwell car will make on the run.

PASTOR IS BEATEN

CARMI, Ill., Oct. 31.—Samuel Seibert, 40, pastor of the Church of Apostles here, was attacked and beaten by a mob after services in the church in which he is alleged to have declared "any man who fights in the present war is not a Christian," and that he "would never salute the United States flag."

SIX MILION IS TEUTON LOSS IN THREE YEARS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Germany lost six million men in the three years of war, according to a declaration made in the Reichstag by the Independent Socialist Ledebour. A report of his speech, reaching Washington through Switzerland, states that, in speaking on the prospects of a fourth winter campaign, the Socialist leader said:

"You have not evidently, gentlemen, an exact conception of what war means. We have had 1,500,000 dead, three or four million wounded, of whom 500,000 are crippled for life, and two million absolutely invalided. That makes altogether six million men lost during three years."

It is stated that official information confirmatory of these figures has been in possession of American officials for some time.

APPEALS FROM JUDGMENT.

SAN JOSE, Oct. 31.—Amelia Winslow has appealed to the Superior Court from the judgment of $300 against her in an action brought by the San Joaquin Valley Land Company. The company is seeking $200 as commission in a $6000 real estate transaction. Mrs. Winslow denies that she had any agreement with the company to dispose of her land.

ANTI-BOYCOTT MOVE FAVORED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—President Wilson's dictum that there must be no after-the-war international boycotts and trade lockouts is winning its way among European powers.

Various missions visiting America on commercial errands have informed the United States tariff commission that plans to deny Germany a market for its goods after the contest is over have been abandoned by all important powers.

When missions first arrived to discuss trade and business they called on the tariff commission with the evident purpose of sounding out America's position. They were informed that President Wilson's declaration against any trade combinations tending to perpetuate world enmities stood as America's firm policy.

Excellent Laxative For Elderly People

As we pass the prime of life the various organs of the body have a tendency to weaken, especially the bowels. Regularity in this important function is so essential to good health that old folks should be very careful to avoid constipation. A congestion of stomach waste in the bowels occasions dizziness, headache, drowsiness after eating, biliousness, belching, bloat, piles, etc., and should be corrected immediately; it is the direct cause of much serious disease.

The most effective remedy for constipation is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin sold in drug stores under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It costs only fifty cents a bottle, is mild in its action, does not gripe or strain, and brings relief quickly in an easy, natural manner. Get a bottle of it from your druggist and keep it in the house; it is the ideal family remedy. A trial bottle can be obtained free of charge by writing to Dr. W. B. SEEK MILLION FOR WELFARE OF JEWS

A campaign to raise $1,000,000 for welfare work among the soldiers and sailors of Jewish faith in the national army and the regular forces of the United States has been inaugurated, and an effort is being made to raise this amount, largely through contributions from Jews, within the next few weeks California's share is estimated at $15,000.

One of the purposes of the fund is the establishment of the same facilities for recreation and religious observance which are extended to the soldiers who are non-Jews, according to Colonel Harry Cutler, chairman of the Jewish Board for Welfare Work.

"The general public," he said, "does not understand how large is the percentage of Jews who have been drafted into the national army, entirely apart from the large number who enlisted prior to the draft.

"In Camp Upton on Long Island, for example, when the complete quota is assembled, the Jews will comprise 40 per cent, most of them drafted from New York City. At Camp Meade at Baltimore the percentage will be 16, and at Camp Dix in New Jersey it will be 7. In all, there are well over 50,000 Jews in the national army.

"There is no desire on the part of anyone to segregate them, but it is felt that these men are entitled to the opportunity for religious observances according to their own faith. We desire to have workers to the number of from one to ten in each cantonment. The salaries and expenses of these workers, together with their uniforms and transportation to their respective posts, must be provided. Some workers will also have to be sent abroad. A conservative estimate of the first year's needs is $750,000."

The headquarters of the organization are at 31 Union Square West, New York City, to which communications and contributions may be sent.

News of the Churches

By S. M. Burritt, Church Editor

The plans are complete for the Luther celebration, this evening, at the First Congregational church. Eugene Blanchard has coached the pick of all the Protestant church choirs until the musical service cannot be excelled.

Dr. D H. Bauslin, D. D., L. L. D., dean of the theological department of Wittenberg college, Springfield, Ohio, will be the speaker of the evening. Dr. Bauslin will also speak Thursday evening in the Berkeley First Presbyterian church; Friday, at a union meeting at Sacramento; Sunday morning, at St. Mark's Lutheran, San Francisco, Sunday p. m., at the Scottish Rite temple in San Francisco; Monday evening at University of California and Tuesday evening at Leland Stanford university, from where he goes on to a big meeting in Los Angeles and to three other southern appointments.

The Lutherans are fortunate in securing this busy man for he declined at least twelve appointments to be here and cancelled two appointments in order to be in California for this Wednesday and Sunday.

This meeting at First Congregational church is under the auspices of all the Protestant churches, but on next Sunday at 3 p. m. will be another celebration of the Lutheran church synodical conference of Alameda county. This will be entirely Luther though the public is cordially welcome. The speakers for the occasion will be Rev. George Jacobson of Stockton and Rev. Theodore Pieper of San Francisco. The combined choirs of the Lutheran churches of Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley will render the musical program.

FALL CONVOCATION.

The fall convocation of the Episcopal churches of Alameda and Contra Costa counties, which was held yesterday at St. Paul's church, showed the greatest progress of years in all branches of missionary and educational work of this denomination.

Over 100 delegates were present and most enthusiastic attention was given to the new duties that the war has placed upon the church by the various speakers. The Right Rev L. C. Sanford, D. D., bishop of the San Joaquin diocese, spoke on "The Church in War Times," successfully impressing the audience with the tenseness of the situation which calls for every co-operation of the church.

The Right Rev. Wm. Ford Nichols, of the California diocese, addressed the delegates on "The Church and Democracy," in the evening, intimating that democracy in itself means no more than government and that government is only a banding together for the protection of property.

The Rev Grover Harrison, chaplain at the Presidio made a short address on "The Church and War Work." He spoke of the work being done by the church among the soldiers, stating that it was nothing more than the carrying out of George Washington's ideas who, as an Episcopalian, set the finest example for a soldier to follow. The convocation closed last evening.

Following is the complete program of tonight's Luther celebration to be held by all the Protestant churches at the First Congregational church:

Soup Plays Havoc With Stomach

To Avoid Distress Take a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet After Meals. They Digest Anything.

A plate of rich vegetable soup is a veritable mine of nutrition, yet will cause untold misery in some stomachs. It will lay heavy, feel like a lump of lead, cause biliousness, bring on lip sores and other symptoms, such as a bloating sensation after eating, accompanied sometimes with sour or water risings, formation of gases, causing pressure on heart and lungs and difficult breathing, headaches, fickle appetite, nervousness and general played-out feeling.

"Gee, I Can Hardly Wait for This Rich Soup to Cool! And to Think That I Wouldn't Have Dared Eat It Before I Began Using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets!"

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are one of the real staple articles in the drug stores, because a host of dyspeptics and those troubled with indigestion have found them the handiest, simplest, safest and most reliable corrective for such conditions as catarrh of the stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heart-burn and bloating after meals.

CANNING SCHEME

Dried tomatoes, which preserve all the flavor of the fresh and ripe fruit, are on exhibition in the Alameda county display at Harrison and Thirteenth streets, and are attracting the attention of housewives who are looking for new methods of food conservation. The inventor of the process is Joseph Lococo, of 1445 Eighty-first avenue, who declares that they will retain the flavor for years. The inventor says his process has the advantage of saving expense of tins or glass jars: every particle is edible; it may be used as a sauce or even sliced as cannot be done with the canned tomato, and that the cost of preservation is very small.

SUES FOR TAXES

John S Chambers, State Controller, has brought suit aaginst Marie Moyrisch, widow of Adolph Moyrisch, to collect inheritance tax on three pieces of property, one on Stanton street and Railroad avenue, and two on Santa Clara avenue, which it is claimed were deeded to her by her husband before his death without valuable consideration. Moyrisch died in 1911, and the deed was recorded a year previous.

Tired Mothers

If sleep does not refresh you, if you are pale and your appetite is poor, if you are always tired and frequently irritable—Pepto-Mangan will help you, provided your condition is not caused by a serious organic disease.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan

"The Red Blood Builder"

The mental, moral and physical welfare of children, the guardianship of family funds, the straining to make ends meet, the big and little worries which come with the multitudinous responsibilities of housekeeping—all combine to make many women weak and nervous under the stress.

Loss of vitality is usually caused by the blood having become thin and sluggish. You cannot remain strong if the blood is too weak and watery to drive out poisons and carry nourishment throughout the system.

Study this picture so you will know how genuine Pepto-Mangan looks.

Pepto-Mangan is a true tonic because it strengthens the blood by putting goodly amounts of iron in it, to enrich it with thousands of new, healthy red blood cells.

A short course of pleasant tasting Pepto-Mangan is usually beneficial, because a plentiful supply of rich, red blood strong in iron, driving through the veins brings back health, vigor and appetite.

Pepto-Mangan cannot injure the teeth nor disturb the stomach.

Friendly Warning: The genuine Gude's Pepto-Mangan is sold in only one way, in the bottle and package as pictured in this advertisement; never in bulk. Refuse all substitutes—there are many. Read circulars around bottle. For sale by all druggists.

OAKLAND'S DOCKS RELIEVE OVERFLOW

Oakland's dock space has been called into requisition to relieve the congestion in San Francisco, where goods are piled up awaiting transportation until it is impossible to accommodate more. Today 1200 tons of pineapples taken to San Francisco on the Matsonia, were lightered to this side of the bay, and are being stored here awaiting cars. The Matson docks at San Francisco were overcrowded and could not receive the goods.

According to shipping men this is the first move to bring over the various goods that are now crowding the San Francisco wharves, with no prospect of shipment. It is believed that cars will be more easily available here if the present car shortage is relieved in a few weeks, and the goods sent east sooner. Several firms are discussing establishing warehouses here to handle the surplus.

CORUM CONVICTED

After the longest criminal trial on record in recent years in Alameda county, the jury last night at 11 o'clock in Judge Waste's court, returned a verdict of guilty against Lafayette Corum on a statutory charge against his 17-year-old daughter, Olive. The jury deliberated ten hours. Corum is a painter, and the home is at 868 Arlington street. The case was prosecuted by Assistant District Attorney W. B. Smith.

Tonight! Take Dodson's Liver Tone! Better Than Calomel For Liver

Calomel sickens! If bilious, constipated and headachy read my guarantee.

Listen to me! Take no more sickening, salivating calomel when bilious or constipated. Don't lose a day's work!

Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with sour bile, crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just take a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents. Take a spoonful tonight, and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous by morning, I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.—Advertisement.

DAMAGE OF $10,000

Damage to the ferry-boat Encinal, rammed and cradled on the mud off the Moore & Scott shipyard by the Western Fuel Company's tug Biddle, has been estimated by Southern Pacific Company officials at $10,000.

The estimate followed an examination by Diver Charles Peterson, who found the grill and engine rooms flooded, the lighting system ruined and a 20-foot hole beneath the waterline. At high tide the lower deck of the Encinal is almost wholly awash.

A crew of men are at work today putting a patch on the ferry's side. When this is complete, steam and air pipes will be led into the hold and the work of raising the craft started. The craft is valued at $300,000.

BLAND STRANGER STOPS CARD GAME

Ah Sin, he whose smile was childlike and bland, had nothing on Arturo Berini, a gentleman of card-playing proclivities and fleet feet, whom several local commission merchants would very much like to see again. Arturo's bland smile, his nonchalant way of "losing" money at poker, and particularly his fleet feet, netted him about $60 this morning.

Several local commission men had gathered, after the morning rush was partly over, in the rear of one of the store houses, as is their wont, to enjoy a little game of poker. Then came Arturo a stranger, but one willing to sit in on the game. Trustfully the others sold him a stack of chips. He lost. He lost again. But always he smiled. He was a game loser.

Then, when one player had about four kings, another four aces, and another something else big, Arturo began to [illegible] under his breath, after he had drawn two cards, and began to bet heavily. The others kept pace. They thought they had pretty good hands, too.

Just then a crowd gathered before the place as a load of peppers arrived. With a quick motion Arturo grabbed all the stakes, rushed from the place before his fellow players had recovered from their amazement, and mingled with the crowd.

He has not been seen since.

No strangers will be let into the game hereafter.

FORD LOSES SUIT

DETROIT, Oct. 31.—The suit brought against the Ford Motor Company and Henry Ford by John F. Dodge and Horace E. Dodge to compel Ford to disburse accumulated dividends to the stockholders instead of using the money to increase the company's business was decided in favor of the Dodge Brothers. The decision was announced today by Circuit Judge George S. Hosmer.

Ford's attorney, Alfred Lucking, declared that appeal would be taken to the Supreme Court.

Judge Hosmer, in deciding the case, held that 50 per cent of the profits of 1916 should be distributed as a special dividend. He also held that the smelter scheme is not a proper one for investment of the Ford Motor Company profits, thus giving the Dodge brothers a sweeping victory over the motor king.

FINDS $20 - BILL

When 9-year-old Willie Jackson of East Oakland offered several of his neighbors a $20 bill for two-bits, they became suspicious and notified the police. Inspector Thomas Gallagher found the bill had been taken from the home of Mrs. G. A. Switz, where Willie had been playing. It was returned to the owner and the lad was reprimanded.

OLD CLOTHES DAY

There will be no white collars at Fremont High school Friday, for the boys of the school will hold their semi-annual Old Clothes Day on the campus during the afternoon session. While the girls are holding their girls' day assembly and jinks, the boys have their rush on the campus. A few "stunts" will be staged by the football men, who will not be allowed in the tie-up on account of the Tech-Fremont game the same afternoon. The feature will come when the high and low fresh work off their class spirit in a tug-of-war. To conclude the day there will be the awarding of the prize for the worst looking old "dude."

News of Woman's Clubs

By Edna B. Kinard

The average man or woman who must live the average life has at times been up against the proposition of a short bank account. It may be illness or misfortune or some unexpected drain upon a bank reserve, but few escape the imperative need for a few extra dollars at some time or other. The teachers of Oakland have realized this. Paid salaries which permit of putting a bit by for the rainy day, nevertheless they have individually felt at times the necessity for other support. It is in answer to this appeal that the School Woman's Club of Oakland has started a loan fund. As yet it is quite small, little more than $400, but it is giving confidence to many a needy [illegible] and in the months ahead a more particular attention will attach itself to this sub-treasury. It is merely a loan fund. The rules which govern it are as simple as possible. But it is one of the most important features of the personal side of the large organization

The School Women's Club are hostesses at dinner and a reception tomorrow evening in honor of Superintendent of Schools Fred Hunter and Mrs. Hunter.

Miss Helen Kimball, in Red Cross nurse's costume, will give a short talk tomorrow before the members and guests of the Mills Club of Alameda county, meeting in Ebell clubhouse The speakers of the hour will be Miss Marian Boalt, instructor in art in Mills College, who will discuss "The Present and Future Possibilities of Art in Mills," and Mrs Oscar Maillard Bennett, whose subject is "The Art in the Spoken Word." A program of songs will be rendered by Mrs. Walter Scott Gannon, assisted at the piano by Mrs Charles William Camm.

The club members were liberal subscribers to the Liberty loan and are giving of their time to packing Christmas boxes to be sent to the boys at the front.

Mrs W. F Eschbacher is opening her Greenbank avenue residence Friday afternoon for a card party that the Durant School Mothers' Club may add to its gift to the local chapter of the Red Cross. Each of the local parent-teacher associations has obligated itself to contribute to the patriotic treasury and it is in this way that the Durant school club has chosen to accumulate a fund.

A Hallowe'en dance for young and old of the neighborhood, with the guests coming in costume, is the pleasure which the women are offering in the school auditorium Friday evening.

The Durant School Club has made a record in the food conservation pledge drive by every member adding her name to the roll

The cafeteria in the Washington school in Berkeley is assured and will be opened about the middle of the month. Forty dollars was added to the equipment fund from the concert and sale of fancy work which the Mothers' Club gave last week, assisted by a quintet of the girls from the California Association for Blind.

A deep appreciation is being offered the women of Alameda county by those who had in charge the second Liberty loan campaign. Mrs. Wallace W. Briggs, chairman of the woman's committee in the county under the council of defense, accomplished a splendid service in the districts outside the cities, making possible a better record in most of the smaller towns. In Centerville a large mass-meeting under her direction brought in a good subscription list. House-to-house canvasses and placing of speakers before the small scattered groups was her contribution to the drive Mrs. J. P. H. Dunn, Oakland, chairman Mrs Annie Little Barry, Berkeley, chairman; Mrs. Charles Tisdale, Alameda, chairman; had charge of the women s share of the work for their respective units

"What Oakland Offers in Play and Recreation for the Children and the Adult" is the subject which Miss Winifred Van Hagan, general supervisor of girls' activities of the Oakland recreation department, will discuss tomorrow afternoon before the Claremont School Mothers' Club. There will be a short musical program by Miss Ruth McCargar, piano; Frank Denke and Dyla Denke. The club meets in the school auditorium at College avenue and Birch court on the fourth Thursday of each month. Tomorrow's session was postponed from the past week.

The middle lecture in the first course which has been arranged by Oakland Federation of Mothers' Clubs will also be given in the Claremont school tomorrow afternoon, Miss Cunningham of San Francisco, representing the Golden Gate Kindergarten Association, discussing the "Educational Value of Play."

"Art and Order in the Home" is the theme which Miss Marian Boalt of the faculty of Mills College will present before the Franklin School Mothers' Club, under the direction of Oakland Federation, in the same series.

"The Stakes of the War" is the subject which will interest the members and guests of the Adelphian Club at their union meeting tomorrow afternoon. Rabbi Martin A. Meyer will be the speaker of the hour. A program of patriotic songs will be presented by M. Vecki, tenor. Assisting Mrs. A. O. Gott in the receiving line will be Mrs. Charles Tisdale, Mrs. Philip S. Teller, Mrs. H. E. Hunt, Mrs. James E Higgins, Mrs. F. B Weeks, Mrs. L. L. Gillogly, Mrs. A. J. Burgner.

Peralta school is organizing a parent teacher association with a large charter membership Yesterday Beulah Vista Mothers' Club was founded with an initial roll of 25 members. Mrs H. A. Encell is president.

The Dreaming Lady

by Anna Katherine Green.

"She is a very nervous woman and cannot always keep still when she rouses up at night. When I hear her rise, I get up, too; but never being quite sure whether she is sleeping or not, I am careful to follow her at a certain distance. Last night I was so far behind her that she had been to her brother's room and left it before I saw her face."

"Where is his room and where is hers?"

"Hers is in front on this same floor. Mr. Brook's is in the rear, and can be reached either by the hall or by passing through this room into a small one beyond, which we called his den '

"Describe your encounter. Where were you standing when you saw her first?"

"In the den I have just mentioned. She was holding a folded paper clinched against her breast and her movement was so mechanical that I was sure she was asleep. She was coming this way, and in another moment she entered this room. The door, which had been opened, remained so, and in my anxiety I crept to it and looked in after her There was no light burning here at that hour, but the moon was shining in. Expecting her to walk straight on, and having some fears of the staircase once she got into the hall, I hurried around to the door beyond you there to head her off But she had not left this room. I waited and waited and still she did not come. Fearing some accident, I finally ventured to approach the door and try it. It was locked. This alarmed me. She had never locked herself in anywhere before, and I did not know what to make of it. Some persons would have shouted her name, but I had been warned against doing that, so I simply stood where I was, and eventually I heard the key turn in the lock and saw her come out. She was still walking stiffly and her hands were empty and hanging at her side."

"And then?"

"She went straight to her room and I after her I was sure she was dead asleep by this time."

"And she was?"

"Yes, miss; but still full of what was on her mind. I know this, because she stopped when she reached the bedside and began fumbling with the waist of her wrapper. It was for the key she was searching, and when her fingers encountered it hanging on the outside, she opened her wrapper and thrust it in on her bare skin."

"And after that?"

"She got into bed. It was I who turned off the light."

"Has that wrapper of hers a pocket?"

"No, miss.

"Nor her gown?"

"No, miss "

"So she could not have brought the paper into her room concealed about her person?"

"No, miss, she left it here. It never passed beyond this doorway "

"But might she not have carried it back to some place of concealment in the room she had left?"

"No, she could not have done that. I was careful to lock the library door behind her before I ran out into the hall."

"Then," concluded Violet, with all the emphasis of conviction, "it is here, and we must look for that document until we find it.

But within, on the extensive floor space several articles were grouped, and Violet, recognizing the possibilities which any one of them afforded for the concealment of so small an object as a folded document, decided to use method in her [illegible] and mentally divided the space before her into four segments.

The first took in the door, communicating with the suite ending in Mr. Brooks' bedroom.

Violet stepped into the next segment. This was the one dominated by the huge fireplace. A rug lay before the hearth To this Violet pointed.

Quickly the woman answered·

"We not only lifted it, but turned it over."

"And that box at the right?"

Is full of wood and wood only."

"Did you take out this wood?"

"Every stick."

Violet left the fireplace after a glance at the mantel-shelf on which nothing stood but a casket of open fretwork and two colored photographs mounted on small easels The casket was too open to conceal anything and the photographs lifted too high above the shelf for even the smallest paper, let alone a document of any size, to hide behind them

The chairs, of which there were several in this part of the room, she passed with just an inquiring look. They were all of solid oak, without any attempt at upholstery, and although carved to match the stalls on the other side of the room, offered no place for search.

Her delay in the third segment was brief. Here there was absolutely nothing but the door by which she had entered, and the books As she flitted on, following the oval wall, a small frown appeared on her usually smooth forehead. She felt the oppression of the books—the countless books. If, indeed, she should find herself obliged to go through them. What a hopeless outlook!

But she had still a segment to consider, and after that the immense table occupying the center of the room—a table which in its double capacity (for it was as much a desk as table) gave more promise of holding the solution of the mystery than anything to which she had hitherto given her attention.

Continued Tomorrow.

SCHOONER LOST; CREW RESCUED

News of the total loss of the four-masted schooner Churchill, one of the best known sailing vessels on the Pacific Coast, has just reached this city with the arrival of the survivors of the crew at Honolulu aboard a Chinese fishing sampan. The vessel burst into flames while imbedded on French Frigate shoals on October 25 and burned to the water's edge.

The story of the disaster was told over the cable to the Charles Nelson company by Captain Charles Granzow, well known in the bay district. The Churchill sailed from the Tonga Islands October 2 for Seattle with a cargo of copra. It was swept on a reef by heavy currents during a dead calm. The crew were without provisions and water when rescued.

BASE FOR BIG DONNER SHAFT IS NOW READY

TRUCKEE, Cal., Oct. 31.—The base for the Donner monument, which is to be erected at Donner Lake, has been completed. It is built of boulders set in concrete The base has a height of 22 feet, so that the bronze statue crowning the top may always project above the deep winter snows. Near by may yet be seen the stumps of trees cut by the trapped emigrants nearly seventy years ago.

The monument, which will be dedicated in June with elaborate ceremonies, is to perpetuate the memory of a band of pioneers, including women and children, which, with a few exceptions, perished when overtaken by a winter storm near the lake which bears its leader's name.

INVENTORY MADE ON 'PLANE WORK

Inventory of the machine tool shop surplus that can be used in Oakland to aid the Federal government in the production of aeroplanes at maximum speed is being made this week by a special committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

The committee is making a study of the various plants engaged in machine tool work in the east bay cities, and will prepare an accurate and detailed report as to shop equipment not in use for other purposes, or not in use to the extent of its maximum output, available for government purposes.

In the East the shops are already engaged in making aeroplane parts. The parts are then sent to a central shop for assembling

NEED FOR HASTE

It would take months to establish a central factory capable of turning out aeroplane parts in large quantities for the entire machine. The need of haste brought about a meeting in Washington at which the heads of a number of establishments engaged in machine tool industries were shown the parts of the Liberty motor, the motor used in the standardized battle planes to be sent to Europe. The experts were asked to look over the parts and to say what each could make best, and could turn out with such precision that it would be true to the finest micrometer measurements.

Within a week each man returned with a replica of the part he had chosen, and with figures as to what quantities he could turn out in his shop.

PRICES ARE FIXED.

Prices for each part were then fixed and all over the country firms are turning out individual aeroplane parts which are being taken by the government, paid for according to a standard scale, and sent to the central assembling station

The local committee has already found several shops that can use their machinery to advantage without curtailing their output of the products they are established to manufacture, and still help the government. Kilns that are not being used to maximum are also available for curing timber for the planes. The committee handling the work was named by President Joseph H. King as follows George Waddell, J. R. Millar, D. C Vogelsang, R. H. Marchant, H. C. Force, A. Warrenskjold, W. D Bunker, Frank Fagsol, A. Schmitz and O. H. Fischer.

INQUIRY OPENS IN SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—Members of the joint Congressional committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce arrived here today to begin hearings in the inquiry into the complex transportation problems of the United States. The public hearing will commence tomorrow at the Palace Hotel.

The inquiry, considered the most important governmental probe since the Aldrich commission initiated the survey which led to monetary reforms, was begun before the United States entered the war. Hearings at Washington were delayed because of the press of war legislation, and the hearings here will be the only public ones before the commission returns to Washington to make its report.

Testimony will be taken on the advisability of government ownership of the railroads, Federal incorporation of common carriers, creation of regional subdivisions of the Interstate Commerce Commission, regulation of oil pipe lines and telegraph and telephone companies. The members of the commission are Senators Newlands of Nevada, Cummins of Iowa, Underwood of Alabama, Robinson of Arkansas, Townsend of Michigan ,and Congressmen Adamson of Georgia, Esch of Wisconsin, Hamilton of Michigan and Sims of Tennessee

The hearings will last about two weeks. Max Thelen, president of the State Railroad Commission, will be one of the principal witnesses.

BEWARE THE ENEMY!

Alien enemies, a phrase which also includes naturalized and native born Americans who are German sympathizers, have already become active in discussions of the Italian retreat from the Isonzo district.

They have become voices of alarm and discouragement. They are trying to induce loyal citizens whose ears they are able to reach that this is a forerunner of the defeat of the allies. They are saying: "See what the Germans can do, what they will do to you!" while more cunning mouthpieces of the enemy are repeating their parrot chattering, "I told you so."

This is the characteristic method of the Prussian militarist to terrorize the weakhearted, to appeal to the instincts of the coward, and to bully humanity into submission by bloody threats and atrocities.

These enemies within our own communities think to discourage business, to create a wave of pessimism and to bring about dissatisfaction among the people. Some of them work boldly, over the directors' table of corporations and in business conferences.

These Huns are of the same breed as the Huns who burned and sacked Louvain.

The Italian retirement, while regrettable, because it is a loss of ground gained at heavy sacrifice, is not a defeat. The strategic situation of the Central Powers is worse today than it has been at any period of the war; the advantage of the allies indisputably greater. The extension of the lines over the mountains to the Italian border weakens the Austro-German lines more than it does the Italian.

In staging the spectacle of a massed attack against the extended and unsupported Italian front on the Isonzo River, Germany worked in accordance with a far reaching plan. Other episodes were the Riga demonstration; the peace plotting in France, of which Bola Pasha, the Bonnet Rouge and the Stockholm conference were manifestations; the crooked peace talk at Berlin; the financing of traitorous efforts in the United States, exposed in the Bernstorff correspondence. And the Kaiser may be expected to raise his blood-stained hand again in protestation of peaceful inclination before Christmas.

But all these moves have failed and will continue to fail. Victory for the cause of humanity will be won and it will be decisive. It is not in the laws of nature that the savage can rule the world.

Italy's resources for waging war have not been affected by General Cadorna's retreat. They are greater than ever, and the courage and the determination of the Italians is unchanged.

The people of the United States, and especially the Italian element, have no grave reason for discouragement. Italy's cause is the cause of all the allied nations, and Italy has won a right to the support of all the other members of the alliance by her magnificent deeds. She will go still further and be an important factor in achieving final victory.

We who remain at home can help beat the enemy by overcoming the efforts of the enemy agents in our midst. We can go about our business as usual, helping the government wherever possible, but remembering we can best help by keeping at the normal tasks and maintaining the usual functions of business.

It has long been a part of the plan of the Prussian general staff to end the war if possible before American forces could be landed in Europe in effective strength. It has plotted and schemed by every known device to cause delay in the war work in this country. It is still playing the same game—make no mistake about that.

Whenever a raven voice predicting disaster is heard, look for someone bearing the brand of the Prussian double-eagle. It may be a voice from the Wilhelmstrasse trying to intimidate and discourage.

All America is confident, hopeful, optimistic; but nevertheless mindful of the big tasks ahead, fully alive to the difficulties that may be met, courageous and unafraid.

Let there be no place for the croaker or the apostle of fear.

We can conserve our resources and avoid waste and still keep business as usual.

Count Johann von Bernstorff has been again honored by the German emperor and given the title of Wirklicher Geheimrath. This must be a mark of special distinction reserved by Wilhelm for proficiency in lying, plotting against the peace of friendly nations and planning the murder of innocents. Bernstorff never qualified in any other line.

BANK CONDITIONS

The report of the State superintendent of banks, Mr. W. R. Williams, for the fiscal year ended June 30th last, shows a most satisfactory condition of California banking institutions. The combined assets of State banks at the close of the period reviewed was $929,224,088, an increase over the previous year of over $111,000,000. An estimate based on the rate of increase for 1917, in connection with the fact that the returns of this year's farm and fruit crops have recently gone to swell deposits, conservatively places the current assets of the State banks at one billion dollars.

Not only have the assets grown, but the volume of banking operations has increased. It will be recalled that at the close of the fiscal period ended June 30, the national banks of California showed large increases in their assets, some of them recording a phenomenal growth. All classes of banks have shown an increase in the number of depositors.

In summing up conditions four months ago the State bank superintendent said:

"The year has been one of expanding opportunities, of increasing production and of augmented industrial, agricultural and manufacturing output. General business has been good; the crops generally have been heavy; industries have been active; construction, particularly in engineering and building, has been stimulated; bank clearings have increased; foreign trade is improving; money rates have shown no perceptible advance; labor is fully employed; agencies of transportation are abundantly occupied; the outlook is one for great activity."

These conditions are practically unchanged today. The outlook is not only one of continued activity, but of continued prosperity.

NAVY CREWS ON TRANSPORTS

Probably urged to a decision by the sinking of the army transport Antilles, the government has decided to turn all the army transports over to the Navy. In the opinion of the War and Navy departments the highly trained and disciplined naval officers and men will be more effective than a constantly changing civilian personnel.

This change will not only insure a higher degree of efficiency in the operation of the transports, but will release a large number of civilian masters, deck officers and crews for service with the new merchant ships which soon will be ready for service in large numbers. With the transports turned over to the navy they will pass from the control of the Federal Shipping Board, a step which will be hailed with general satisfaction. The shipping board will now only have to concern itself with cargo ships and ought to be pleased at being relieved of a part of its labors.

Of course it will require an increase in the enlisted personnel of the navy to operate the transports and at the same time leave adequate crews for the fighting craft in commission and nearing completion. To meet this condition the General Board of the Navy is reported to have recommended that Congress authorize an addition to the navy of 80,000 men when it reassembles in December. Of this number 30,000 are to be for the permanent naval forces and 50,000 for the period of the war.

When these additions are authorized and the men enlisted and drilled in their duties the problem of crews for the transports will be solved in a satisfactory manner. But this is only a part of the problem of the shipping board. It must find and train crews for the great fleet of cargo ships that now exists on paper and which for the most part will actually be in operation within the next eighteen months. Schools in seamanship are now being conducted at several places on both coasts and they at least will provide the nucleus of crews for the new merchant ships. But so long as candidates for the rank of deck and navigating officers must qualify before a board of examiners composed of members of the old pilots and masters' association there will be many disappointments.

The conduct of some of the police judges of San Francisco in showing astonishing leniency to persons accused and convicted of violation of the federal laws enacted for the protection of the enlisted men of the army and the navy and to conserve military efficiency has lately been such as might appropriately mark the career of one in league with the vice interests of the city or on friendly terms with enemies of the country. There may yet come a time when the national government will consider that the civil police authorities are not superior to the national laws, that they, too, may be disciplined for disregarding the public interests.

Treasury department estimates of the government's expenditures for October total $1,200,000,000. From this may be deducted $470,000,000 loans to the allies and $100,000,000 normal expenses, which leaves $630,000,000 as the sum of all war expenditures for the month. This is the first approximately correct statement of war expenses yet obtained, and is at the rate of 7½ billion a year.

The speech of the Russian foreign minister to the preliminary parliament at Petrograd is reassuring in that it shows that the Russian government is fully informed as to the aims of the enemy. In the light of this fact, we may continue to hope that Russia will adhere to her disavowal of any separate peace term.

NOTES and COMMENT

Bootleggers complain that an unfair advantage is being taken of them. Men in uniform profess a desire to buy booze, when they are merely laying a trap. It does seem that the authorities are putting obstacles in the way of those who would gain money in this way.

There is plenty of money, but Director Hoover is taking time by the forelock and emphasizing his warning as to food. It is not that the country cannot produce enough to feed its inhabitants, but that it is as necessary to success in this conflict to help feed its allies as it is to feed itself.

* * *

The trading-with-the-enemy law is now in effect. Goods that are "caught in the act" will be in danger of confiscation.

* * *

Self-denial, it is represented in connection with food conservation, "is far less serious than fighting in the trenches." But there can be a mighty lot of food conservation without any suffering at all. There is much economy that might be practiced before any pinch is felt.

* * *

It has been noticed that air raids on England have not occurred as frequently of late. This has been attributed in some quarters to the announced intention to indulge in reprisals, but it is more probably due to more efficient safeguards.

* * *

We always make a point to read State Market Director Weinstock's poetry regarding fish as a food, but cannot help observing that his "feet" are frequently at fault, and that his rhyming is erratic. But, evidently, finished literary workmanship is not what he is driving at.

* * *

It is expected that tourist travel will be exceptionally heavy this winter. For a time there was nowhere else to go, but now it has been found by the greater multitude that California is the best place even if all others were open.

* * *

"Alameda county goes beyond her Liberty bond quota." Of course she does. Having both the money and the patriotism, there was nothing to it.

* * *

Friendly personal mention from the Gustine Standard: "Smoke Cornett, former prominent politician and director of publicity for Gustine, who has lately been observed in the vicinity of Los Banos, where he is learning the language of the natives of that place, was in Gustine for a short time last week. He could not stay very long, as he said the restrictions of civilization got on his nerves and he had to get out where there was more hair, or hare, or something. We like to see Smoke and hear him talk, and he has permission to come down whenever he has the time."

Automobile thievery is assuming such proportions that it has become a problem. In earlier days horse stealing was a most irritating form of outlawry, but automobile stealing far exceeds any former foray in horseflesh. It will be impossible to apply the summary punishment that some communities formerly applied to the horse thief, but drastic methods will soon be found necessary.

The Crockett Signal, describing a banquet there to a visiting baseball team, says that it "proved an occasion that will be remembered for eternity."

The I. W. W. fails to make a hit in England. The Briton devises troubles of his own that are perplexing enough, but is rather ruthless on importations.

New revolutionary movement in Mexico. It is supported by the name of Diaz, which is expected to have magic, and by German money, which is not as potent in such things as it may have been. However, it has not yet got beyond a pronunciamento.

The Cincinnati pastor who prayed for the kaiser and suffered in consequence at the hands of Kentuckians "in the name of the poor women and children of Belgium" should have remembered that they have an overt way of disapproving in the Bourbon State.

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS

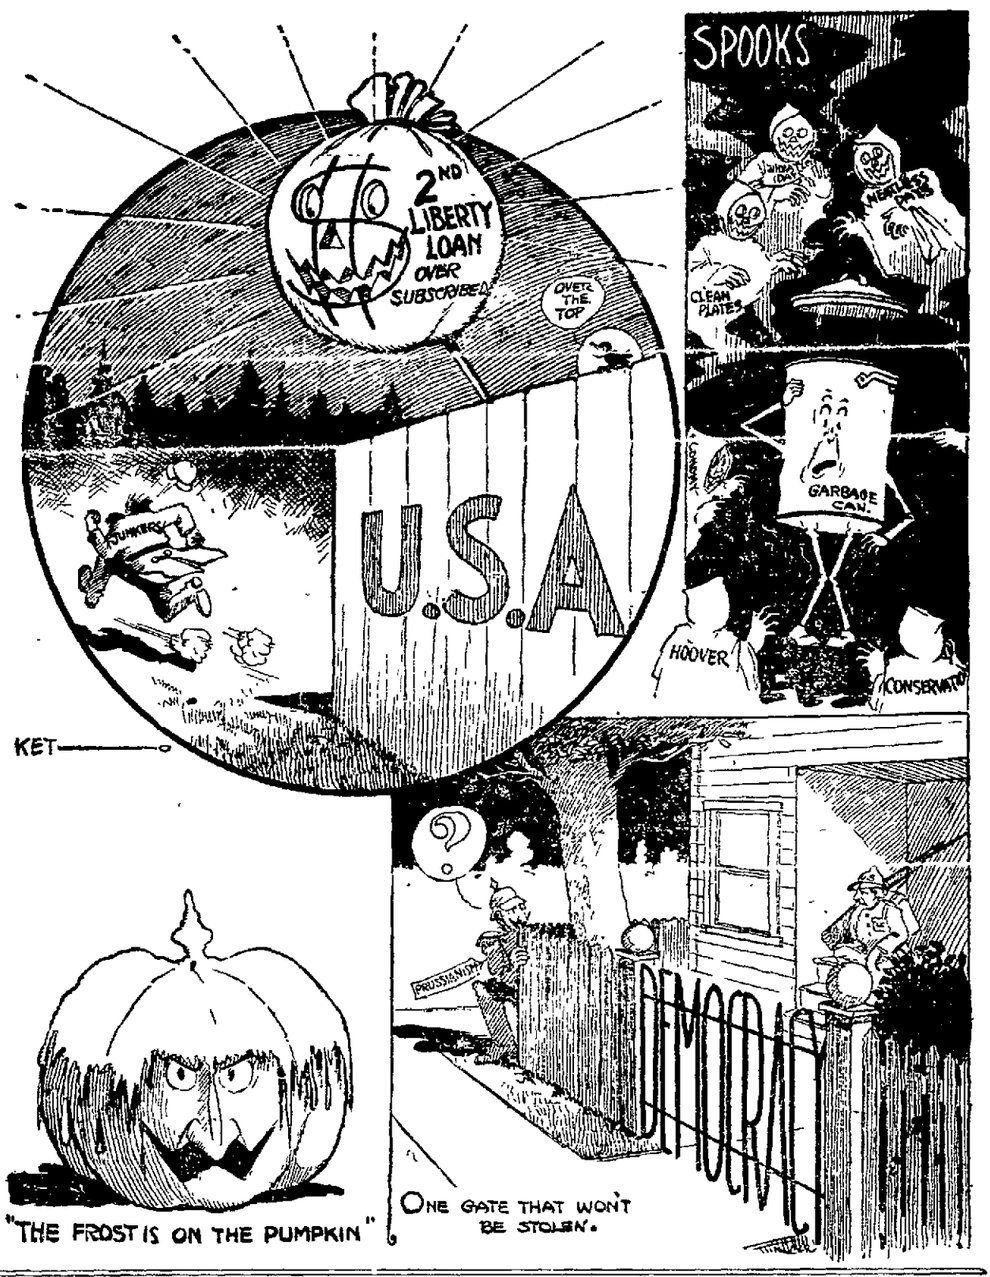

Merced's first trial with an all-woman jury occurred on October 20 in Justice Farrar's court, with women as both plaintiff and defendant in a battery case, and with women witnesses, the verdict being guilty, with a fine of $50 imposed. The Standard Oil Company is a heavy buyer of newspaper space to advertise its products. In this State it makes use of twenty-four daily papers for that purpose. And these twenty-four papers have been instructed to devote Standard Oil space, during the present week, to advertise, not the products of the corporation, but Liberty bonds.—Bakersfield Californian.

Sixty sacks to the acre of rice that sells in the field at 3½ cents a pound is a little over $200 an acre yield from Butte county land that half a dozen years ago was valued at $15 an acre—not so bad.—Chico Enterprise.

WOMEN WILL WORK HARD TO SAVE FOOD

The homes in Berkeley will be individually called upon tomorrow by that large army under the Mobilized Women's Organizations of the college town, presenting to each housewife the Hoover food pledge. The same corps of workers, organized on strictly military lines, which a fortnight ago under Mrs. Lewis A. Hicks, made a drive for books and magazines, is repeating its valiant service in the interests of the second conservation measure. Each block has been assigned a captain whose duty it is to explain the purposes of the administration in asking for a volunteer substitution of food stuffs. If a home manager refuses, a record is to be kept of her reasons with later attention directed toward its justice. Tomorrow night when the conservation reel is shown in the T. & D. theater of Berkeley for the benefit of the Mobilized Organizations, the result of the house to house canvass and the total of the school drive yesterday will be shown on the screen. The Berkeley women have organized the conservation army as a permanent institution which may be thrown into any campaign suggested by the authorities. From headquarters in the city hall, where Mrs. Douglass Ross is in charge the food drive has been directed.

WORKERS' DAY HERE.

This was workers' day in Oakland where the local unit of the Council of Defense is allowing itself two days in which to complete the precinct campaign. Each of the 242 precincts has been assigned a captain who is responsible for the house to house calling. Where window cards are shown, no visits will be made. As yet no reports have come in from the churches

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—The special Japanese finance commission sent to this country on an important mission arrived here today and received an offical welcome. The commission was appointed by the Japanese department of finance and is headed by Baron Tanetaro Megata of the Japanese House of Lords and director of finance for the government of Japan. The other members of the party include Osanu Matsumoto; secretary of the department of finance; Baron Dunkichi Ito, son of Prince Ito, prime minister of Japan; Takenosuke Sakaguchi, engineer of special investigation board; Yoshitaro Yamashita of the Sumitomo Bank of Osaka, Umekici Yoneyana of the Mitusui Bank, Chozo Koite of the Tukahara Mining Company, Kenjiro Matsumoto of the Yasukawa Mining Company and Seiji Hishipa, secretary of the commission and interpreter of the government general of Korea.

The commission will work out practical and decisive plans for the establishment of closer and more extended financial relations between the United States and Japan, and the establishment of a Japanese-American Chamber of Commerce.

They are being entertained by local Japanese today in honor of the Mikado's birthday.

The members of the commission will be the guests tomorrow at a luncheon given in the Bohemian Club by the Chamber of Commerce. On Friday the commission will be guests of the Japanese Society of America at a luncheon in the Palace, and Friday night the society will entertain at an elaborate dinner in the Fairmont.

RED CROSS HEAD GUEST; IS ON TOUR

Henry P. Davison, chairman of the war council of the Red Cross and a member of the firm of J. P. Morgan and Company, who is touring the country in the interests of the Red Cross, is the guest of various committees of the San Francisco bay chapters of the Red Cross city officials, local, state and national bodies and Federal representatives in San Francisco today.

Davison arrived from Los Angeles this morning accompanied by Harvey D. Gibson, general manager of the Red Cross and president of the Liberty National Bank of New York; Robert Davis, Red Cross Commissioner to France; and Ivy L. Lee, assistant to the chairman. The incoming party was met by Marshal Hale, manager of the Red Cross of the Pacific Division; Mayor James Rolph Jr., Major-General Arthur Murray, William H. Crocker, John M. Britton, John B. Miller, M. H. De Young, Charles W. Fay, A. B. C. Dohrmann and Jesse Lilienthal.

On account of the brief stay of Davison and his party in the bay district, announcement was made this morning by the local council of the Red Cross that his itinerary includes a meeting at 3 o'clock this afternon in Scottish Rite Auditorium in San Francisco, for workers, enthusiasts and those interested from Oakland and the east bay district. Davis will also make a brief talk. Students and members of the faculty of the University of California will have an opportunity to hear Davison tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock when he makes a brief talk on the University campus, just before entraining for Seattle.

LUNCHEON IS HELD.

The big reception to the visiting Red Cross heads was in the nature of a luncheon at the St. Francis Hotel in honor of the Red Cross by the members of the San Francisco "Million Dollar War Drive" and the officers of the Pacific Division chapters. At 8 o'clock tonight, the huge mass meeting and Red Cross rally will be held in the municipal auditorium in San Francisco when heads of the organization, members of the visiting Congressional party which is being entertained jointly with the Red Cross party, and local business and industrial heads, will participate in a "get together" session. It is expected that thousands of citizens, anxious to hear of the work of the Red Cross will attend.

A luncheon was staged at the St. Francis hotel in honor of the guests by the members of the San Francisco "Million Dollar War Drive" and the officers of the Pacific Division chapters. At 3 o'clock a mass meeting and reception will be held in the Scottish Rite auditorium at which Davison, Gibson, Davis and members of the local committees will make brief talks.

BIG MEETING.

The big meeting will be held in the municipal auditorium at 8 o'clock this evening, when heads of the Red Cross, members of the Congressional party at present in the bay district and prominent local and state businessmen, and official representatives will participate in a huge patriotic Red Cross rally. There will be no night meeting in Scottish Rite auditorium.

On his arrival here today, Davison declared that the Red Cross needed big financial backing for the work it had undertaken. More than $30,000,000 is needed to carry on the work in France alone he said, for the next six months. Five large military hospitals have already been established there, and twenty civilian hospitals. In addition he declared that medical supplies have been

11,958 Enroll in Local Red Cross Annual Meeting Held Last Night

With a membership of 11,958, Oakland Chapter of the American Red Cross now has enrolled in its ranks approximately 4.8 per cent of the total population in its territory, according to the report of Secretary Herbert J. Samuels presented last evening at the annual meeting of the chapter. The present total membership in the United States is about 4,000,000, or approximately 4 per cent. Oakland Chapter thus being relatively large in importance. The 11,958 members are divided as follows: Annual, 10,875; subscribing, 805; contributing, 175; sustaining, 29; life, 69; patrons, 5.

Oakland Chapter has under its jurisdiction all of Alameda county except Alameda, Berkeley and San Leandro. Working under its charter are two branch chapters (Piedmont and Hayward), 23 auxillaries and 97 circles.

Treasurer John Davidson reported that the amount of cash handled by Oakland Chapter as received from Alameda county was $105,872.92 from the War Fund drive (including cash and pledges) and $45,116.93 from other sources, making a total of $150,989.86. Of this amount $79,439.18 was credited to the War Fund.

Of the War Fund drive receipts $55,616.42 is on deposit in the Central National Bank to the credit of William G. McAdoo and subject to his check. Of the $50,256.50 in pledges, $43,724.45 has been collected and is on deposit in the Oakland Bank of Savings, leaving $6,532.05 in pledges to be collected. From the receipts of the War Fund drive the Oakland chapter took its 25 per cent proportion as allowed by Washington, $25,000.

This amount stands first in the list of "cash received," which also includes: War Fund expenses, $1433.75; memberships, $15,775.75; first aid department, $206.60; sale of pins and buttons, $525.75; sale of yarn, $2221.48; benefits and donations, $16,461.32; balance from campaign committee not including memberships, $9,926.78; total; $71,550.68.

Expenditures, including membership pro rata sent to Washington, supplies purchased, war fund expenses, salary account, stationery, printing, advertising and other expenses, amounted to $48,715.75, leaving a balance on hand of $22,834.93.

MUCH MATERIAL SUPPLIED.

A total of 200 miles of yardage of various materials, or sufficient to reach from Oakland to Fresno, has been used by the Oakland Chapter in the manufacture of supplies, according to the report of Mrs. Esther Snedigar, chairman of the committee on hospital supplies and surgical dressings. In the making of pajamas alone, 25 miles of material was employed. In the list of articles made were included 4464 pairs of pajamas, 2300 comfort bags, 4156 towels, 2400 napkins, 2400 handkerchiefs, 3804 bed sheets, 2166 pillow cases and 1014 convalescent robes.

Mrs. R. A. Glenn reported that 37,260 gauze dressings had been made, together with 12,900 rolled bandages and 3972 muslin dressings.

Mrs. Dudley Kinsell, chairman of the Home Service committee, reported that there are now 27 families on the list receiving aid. Seventeen cases have been closed—3 fraudulent, 3 transferred to other chapters, 2 rehabilitated, 3 at specific request, 6 applications not renewed. During the last four months the committee has received 413 calls at headquarters and paid 219 visits.

Reports from the Hayward and Piedmont chapters were made by Mrs. I. B. Parsons and Mrs. Harry W. Thomas, showing excellent progress.

DIRECTORS CHOSEN.

Directors for the ensuing year were elected unanimously on recommendation of the nominating committee as follows: J. W. Garthwaite, Charles L. Smith, John Davidson, H. C. Capwell, Dr. John S. Engs, Irving H. Kahn, Mrs. Harry East Miller, M. A. McInnis, Judge F. B. Ogden, Mrs. George E. Perkins, Joseph J. Rosborough, Mrs. M. Van Becker, Mrs. W. G. Houts, Mrs. E. A. Kimball, Mrs. Lillian Brown Everts, Mrs. J. H. Perine.

The directors will hold a meeting for reorganization and election of officers tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock in the offices of the Oakland Clearing House Association.

John L. Cymer, director of the bureau of organization on the Pacific coast, introduced by President Garthwaite as "the dynamo of the Red Cross in California," made a stirring appeal for solidarity and self-sacrifice in the work of the organization.

"We must bury all personal aspirations,

SHANNON CHARGES SUSTAINED

Charges of misconduct preferred against Patrolman Michael Shannon, formerly in charge of the city chain gaing of prisoners, were sustained by the civil service board last night and the findings were today submitted to Commissioner F. F. Jackson, from whom any further action must emenate in the case.

Patrolman Shannon was found by the board to have allowed prisoners to escape in unreasonable numbers, to have permitted men under his charge to leave the gang to obtain liquor and morphine and to have failed to restrain them from stealing wine from a private winery on one occasion and butter from a grocery store on another. During the period of his duty on the chain gang Patrolman Shannon lost thirty-nine prisoners, according to the testimony before the board.

The charges against Shannon were made by William McGuire, former driver of the chain gang wagon. Commissioner Jackson may take whatever action he sees fit and either fine or discharge the patrolman.

Question was raised by the board as to the efficiency marks given E. C. Hahn, a clerk in the street department. Hahn claimed that he had not been marked as high as he should on account of political differences in the department. Secretary Frank Colbourn of the board was instructed to go into the matter with Commissioner Soderberg and the heads of the department.

Requests were made by Chief of Police Nedderman and by Fire Chief Elliot Whitehead for additional men in their departments. It was estimated not less than ten in each department are necessary as a number of firemen have been taken in the draft, while vacancies also exist in the police department. Director Kaufman opposed the allowance, demanding it be shown more definitely just where the extra men were to be placed.

CHANCE FOR CALIFORNIA TEAM TO MEET EASTERN COLLEGE

Victory Over Washington To Give Berkeley Squad Eastern Football Standing

If Andy Smith's Team Can Win, It Will Break Northerners' Long String

If California can beat Washington in the game at Berkeley Saturday it will be even more than a big game victory; and to the college student a big game victory marks the end of a perfect football season. A victory over the Indians will be the first one scored against the Northerners in nine years. In 1909 the University of Washington team played its big game to a 4-to-4 tie against Washington State College. Since that game the Seattle boys have registered a win on every start, with the exception of a 6-to-6 tie game with Oregon last year.

This year the Washington team is the weakest in years, but they have not lost a game this season so far, and are going into the big game with the scalp of only one Northwest college at their belts. Two weeks ago the University of Washington team defeated Whitman College. But before that game they had played several games against local teams in Seattle, and have won by large scores.

The football critics are handing Andy Smith a lot of bouquets after the way his boys handled the much-touted team from Cornell last week, but Andy is rather slow at taking all the credit. He points to the great work the California line did, and gives the credit for that line to Coach Gus Ziegler. With every available man in perfect condition for Saturday, Smith is confident his boys will put up a great scrap for the premier honors of the Pacific Coast.

EAST VS WEST GAME?

And if the California team shows a marked superiority to the Washington bunch it will mean a lot of advertisement for the Berkeley institution. And further it will probably mean that the University of California will be one of the contestants in the East vs West game to be staged on the coast later in the year. Pasadena will make another bid this year for a big East vs. West contest, and the California boys are figuring on either making the Pasadena game or taking on the Eastern visitors at Berkeley. In the latter case, Pasadena would probably seek Washington State College to play the Eastern team. What Eastern college will send the representative team will not be settled on for some time yet, as the season on the Atlantic seaboard is not very far under way as yet.

With California football yet in the limelight the basketball players are not wasting any time. Practice has been called for interclass teams to begin tomorrow, and interclass games will be scheduled for the latter part of next week. For the varsity team the Berkeley rooters have not much hope. With Captain Bill Embury, Bud Sharpe and George Hjelte gone, it looks like a slim team for the Bears.

But the freshmen will have a crack bunch without doubt. "Mush" Hjelte, former Oakland Gold player, is a freshman at U. C., and "Mush" would make a good team all by himself. Standing a good six feet two, and possessing speed and experience that few varsity players can boast, Hjelte should be a sensation. Besides Hjelte there is "Pesky" Sprott, Jim Blewett and Mosier, three football players who have ha da lot of experience at basketball.

Jimmie "Sure Thing" Todd has left for the training camp at San Pedro where he will try out for an ensign's commission. Jimmie has been showing himself in sailor's attire in Oakland for some time, while he has been studying navigation in San Francisco. Todd will be remembered by both Oakland high and university alumni as one of the greatest little [illegible] of the country. Although married, and a man of family, Todd answered the call long before his number was picked in the great lottery.

After the game next Saturday between California and Washington, the Bears will be seen in only one more game on their home grounds, playing against St. Mary's college on the following Saturday. After that California goes to Oregon to meet the "webfoot" team and the following Saturday the Bears play the University of Southern California at Los Angeles.

Stanford Will Lose Baseball Star Players

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Oct. 31. — A. C. Mattei '17, former varsity pitcher, is back on the campus prior to leaving for American Lake to enter the draft army. Mattei attempted to enter in the aviation corps earlier in the year, but failed to pass the rigid physical tests.

Stanford's baseball team this year will also be minus the services of Guy Draper one of the leading pitchers on last year's varsity. Draper has enlisted in the ambulance corps and will soon leave for Allentown, Penn.

DUNDEE WHIPS DUFFY.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31. — Johnny Dundee of this city cleverly outfought Jimmy Duffy, also a local lightweight, in every round of a ten-round bout here last night. Dundee weighed 131¼ pounds and Duffy 134½.

Dundee and Moy May Fight in Sacramento

Rowdy Elliott Trying to Get Bouts in Capital City for Speedy Local Boy.

Jimmy Dundee versus Charley Moy—a bout that the fight fans around the bay have been clamoring for—may be staged in Sacramento if Rowdy Elliott, former Oakland ball player, makes a success of his first venture of the season as a fight manager. Dundee and Moy have fought before the bay fans and shown so much that every once in a while somebody is heard asking why they are not re-matched here. The only reason advanced is that there is so much personal feeling wrapped up in the fight with the fans of both sides of the bay that a promoter is in danger of having his arena torn to pieces whichever way the fight goes.

Elliott has taken over the management of Dundee and is looking for a series of bouts for the winter. It is a shame that some promoter around the bay will not stage the fight between Dundee and Moy, for it is surely one of the classiest looking offerings that is lying around loose right now. Elliott will try to interest the Sacramento promoters, and if he can not get on there, he will probably take Dundee south to get on in a series of fights at Vernon.

Joe Gorman Is Feather Champ Of Northwest

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 31. — Joe Gorman of Oakland today holds the Northwest featherweight championship by winning a decision over Weldon Ring here last night. Willie Hoppe of San Francisco tamed Portland's pride, Muff Bronson, and Referee Jack Grant gave the decision to the Californian after six rounds of fast hard slugging. Hoppe carried the battle into Bronson's territory most of the time and kept Muff busy using all the shiftiness he had to prevent the landing of a sleepmaker. Lloyd Madden of Seattle received a well earned decision over Jack Wagner of Portland.

Norman Ross Offered Army Swimming Berth

Now that all of the leading fighters of the country have been assigned their duties of teaching the soldiers how to box, the army officials are turning their attention to other lines of athletic activity that come in handy to a man in army life. Norman Ross, holder of so many swimming records that he himself does not know how many he has, has been offered the position of swimming instructor for the men at Camp Travers, San Antonio, Texas.

Ross has passed all the tests required to enter the aviation training school at Berkeley, but may give up the aviation [illegible] service in the swimming work with which he is familiar.

LEACH CROSS MAY INSTRUCT.

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 31. — Leach Cross, the New York boxing dentist, may become boxing instructor at Camp Kearny, according to a statement given out today by J. R. Case Jr., divisional director at the camp. Cross visited the camp this week and intimated he would accept such a position if arrangements could be made, and it is understood Case has the contract ready.

Winter League Managers Must Be Prepared to Act, Not Just Talk, Tonight

Clubs Must Post Their Forfeit Money

Tonight at 8 o'clock is the time for managers of all clubs in the Class A and Class B divisions of the east bay cities mid-winter baseball league to meet at Cliff Blankenship's Maryland Bowling Alleys, Seventeenth street, San Pablo and Telegraph. This will be the last meeting preliminary to the opening of the season next Sunday afternoon when four games in each division of the league are to be played.

Forfeit money must be posted by all clubs in the league tonight. Clubs which are not prepared to put up their money tonight will be dropped without any further delays, as there are clubs waiting to get into each division and there will be no need to worry about filling the places of any clubs which fail to live up to the agreements to which they subscribed a few weeks ago.

Contracts of players already signed by the various clubs must be filed with Jerry Lawlor, secretary of the league, tonight. In this case also the league cannot afford to tolerate any delays and any club not prepared to submit its list of players might just as well not be represented tonight.

And any club which is not represented at tonight's meeting will be counted out of the running and its place filled by one of the outside clubs which prefer a place in the winter league, but which are planning to form another league in case they cannot get into the winter league organization. Conditions are such that the league does not need to beg any manager to keep his club in the league. If any manager backs down on his agreement of a few weeks ago now, the league will be better off without him. It will be better to drop any such club right now rather than beg it to come back and then risk another run-out on its agreement after the season starts.

Umpires for the league will be chosen tonight. Applicants for positions as umpires in the league should get in touch with Jerry Lawlor, the league secretary, before tonight.

Complete arrangements for opening games will be made tonight. In short, it is absolutely necessary that all clubs in the league be represented tonight. Don't come with the idea of asking more time to put up forfeit money or more time to argue some question of rules that have already been adopted.

Final action on everything must be taken tonight, and there will be no excuse for any club representative not being authorized to act. Eight o'clock at the Maryland Bowling Alleys—BE THERE.

TIME TO PICK A REFEREE

Changes in the Officials Is Hurting Fight Game

TED LEWIS IS NOW IN BAD

By CARL E. BRAZIER.

This talk of Ted Lewis and his manager, Jimmy Johnston, of going back East without appearing in any more fights on the Coast, may not be altogether voluntary on the part of Lewis-Johnston and company. The fact of the matter is that Ted is in bad about all the way around out here. Tommy Simpson, matchmaker of the Emeryville Club, has an agreement with Lewis to put him on in three fights, but Simpson would not be particularly peeved if Lewis ran out on that agreement. Simpson will live up to the agreement if Lewis sticks around and will put him on next week with either Marty Farrell or Johnny McCarty. But Simpson is pulling for Lewis to take advantage of the offer he claims to have to participate in one of the New York bouts that mark the closing of the ten-round fight game in New York on November 15.

The trouble goes farther back than the poor showing that Lewis made in his bout against Battling Ortega. Simpson does not mind being ridden by the fight fans who charge him with talking [illegible] and bringing him all the way to the Coast. Simpson does not mind the fans riding him because Ortega failed to beat Barrieau and Ritchie and then put up that kind of a showing against a man whom either Barrieau or Ritchie could beat.

SIMPSON IS SUMMONED.

Simpson has other troubles. It seems that the day before the Ortega-Lewis fight, Simpson was summoned to the other side of the bay to the headquarters of Jimmy Johnston, the manager of Lewis. Now Simpson does not like to be summoned. When anybody asks him to go anywhere, Tommy likes to have it apear that his time is pretty well taken but that if it is really important, he can squeeze in the time.

Jimmy Johnston did not act that way with Tommy. Jimmy just called on the phone, told Simpson he wanted to see him right away, and hung up. Well now it happens that when one of the principals on one of his fight cards acts that way, Simpson has to take it. Simpson crossed the bay thinking all kinds of things—Lewis might have been injured, Lewis might be afraid of Ortega, or Lewis might want a medal with a little more gold plating on it.

NO WAY OUT FOR TOMMY.

When Simpson arrived at Johnston's headquarters, this is the line of talk that was passed out to him. "Jim Griffin will referee that fight tomorrow night or Lewis will not fight." And there was Simpson, with no way out of having one of his fighters dictate to him just who was to referee the match. Simpson tried to argue his way out, tried to threaten his way out, but he could not find a loophole. And as some of the fans know to their displeasure, Griffin refereed.

Before the fight the odds were 10 to 3 on Lewis, with it specified that the Lewis backers at 10 to 3 won in case of a draw. And the fight was declared a draw.

The Griffin dictates of Johnston and Lewis have not generally leaked out, but where they have come to be known they have stirred up things in fight circles around the bay. Ortega did not have many backers in that fight—not as many as he would have in another bout with Lewis—but those who did back the Battler more perhaps because of the tempting odds than because of any faith in Ortega, have been hollering loud and often.

ONLY ONE PROTECTION.

Under the fight game as it is played here in California, a promoter cannot have articles of agreement with his boxers, cannot require any forfeit money, or anything of the kind to bind them. Thus the promoter is practically at the mercy of the fighter and his manager. If the fighter refuses to make weight, the promoter is out of luck. If the fighter even refuses to fight, the promoter is out of luck, and he is out of pocket whatever he has had to spend in advertising in case the fighter's refusal to fight results in calling off the card.

But there is a way of holding fighters to their verbal agreements, and the fact that there is a way of holding them may be the real reason that Ted Lewis is talking of going back east. Once a fighter goes back on his word the promoters can easily ban him, and he will find plenty of others to join hands in giving the cold shoulder to the scrapper who thinks that he can dictate his own terms after agreeing to others.

All of which would suggest the argument again that it is time for the Emeryville club to have its own referee and judges and stand by them. Why change referees at every fight just because some fighter objects to some referee? Why not get a referee in whom the fans and fighters have faith and then stick to him?

NAME CLUB OFFICIALS.

The fight game is suffering more than the promoters realize by this uncertainty in referees. The fans do not know these days until they have bought their tickets who is going to referee. The time has come for the club to select a permanent referee and judges and announce that they will officiate at all bouts. Then if any fighters object to fighting with those officials they can say so when the bouts are being arranged. If they do not want to fight with the club officials working, let some other fighters be secured. And if the fighters once agree to those officials and then run out on their agreements, let the fans know about it and it will not take those fighters more than a couple of weeks to decide that perhaps after all it is just as well to stick with their agreements.

Now for a definite announcement of club referee and judges out at Emeryville, and then let's stick by them. Not for part of a card, but throughout every card. No more changing referees from one fight to another, and then there will be a little more faith in fandom in the fight game.

Eight Club Coast League Hangs on Use of Bushers

Pacific Coast league magnates meet tomorrow noon in a special session. The meeting has been called for various purposes, chief perhaps of which is the question of whether a change will be made in the makeup of the league for another year.

The proposal will be made that the league be boosted to an eight club affair by the addition of Seattle in the northwest and of Sacramento or some city near Salt Lake as the eighth club. It will be argued that the addition of Seattle will give a traveling club two weeks' stay in the northwest, thus overcoming the present objection to the high traveling expenses of going to Portland just for one week's stay. The addition of a club near Salt Lake, such as Ogden, will be argued as a means of removing the same objection to costs of trips to Salt Lake.

Also it would give Salt Lake virtually continuous baseball and reward the fans of that section for their loyalty to their club. Sacramento will be offered as a happy medium to break up long jumps between Los Angeles and Portland, and also to give the league chance for shorter jumps occasionally between San Francisco and Sacramento.

If the proposal to add two clubs and make the Coast league an eight club affair is not met with favor, the only other proposed change which is likely to be made is for the removal of the Vernon franchise to Sacramento. The sentiment seems to be spreading all over the circuit that Portland will stay in the league. Los Angeles on the other hand has supported the Angels well, but cannot seem to work up much enthusiasm in a Vernon club, and the proposal to cut out continuous baseball in the south for a few years will be given serious consideration.

The question of boosting the league to an eight-club affair will hang on the question of whether or not there is enough material available for two more clubs. The player limit in the league will probably be cut down so as to provide more chance for youngsters to get a chance in the league, and this is the only hope of enough material for two new clubs. The league magnates know that any new clubs which are added to the league would have to be up in the race for the first season, and they know that nobody in those new cities has enough money to go out and buy up a lot of eastern stars. So if the other clubs will consent to limit themselves to youngsters more than in the past and thus give the new clubs a chance to be in the race with such material as they could pick up, the eight-club proposal may meet with favor.

Sacramento is ripe for baseball and the moneyed interests of the capital city are ready to do their share in getting behind a club. All that they object to is paying some other person's debts. If they can start with a clean slate, the chances are Sacramentans will put up the money to back a club. There would be plenty of backers ready to get behind another club in the Salt Lake section, and Seattle seems to be the only city in the defunct Northwestern league that is showing any baseball life.

The question of shortening the Coast League season by five weeks will also be considered, but if the eight-club shift looks as though it would solve the difficulties of transportation, the chances are that the club magnates will decide to take another chance on the 30-week season.

Crockett Ready to Enter League if Opening Comes; Stumpf and Lane Signed

Final plans for the opening day's play next Sunday in the East Bay Citiesc Midwinter Baseball League will be made at a meeting tonight at the Maryland Bowling Alleys, Seventeenth street, San Pablo and Telegraph. The meeting will start promptly at 8 o'clock with plenty of business in sight to keep the managers of the Class A and Class B clubs busy right through the evening.

The chances are that Crockett will have a representative at the league meeting tonight. Crockett is not in the league, but wants to be, and if there is any disposition to kick over the traces, it will not take very long to get Crockett into the fold. It is to be regretted that Crockett was overlooked in the original formation of the league; the fans of that section have shown their loyalty to a club and they stood by the guns in the Native Sons League until all hope was lost. That's the kind of spirit that the Winter League needs, and there will be plenty of managers ready to welcome Crockett into the ranks in case an opening presents.

RICHMOND TROUBLES OVER.

Pittsburg and Richmond will be represented at the meeting, and Manager Otto Deitrich has given assurance that he will be on hand to put down the story that he is not going to get his team to stay together for the race. There have been troubles in Richmond baseball, but these are said to have been all smoothed over, and the element which was trying to get in on the ground floor of the league with a cake of dynamite is believed to have been thoroughly quieted.

Yesterday brought a story that Pittsburg would not come into the league if Richmond did not stay in. But the same day brought a story of Billy Lane being signed up to play for Pittsburg, and it also brought the story that Los Banos backers would be ready to put a traveling team into the league along with Crockett if an opening presented. So there does not seem to be any cause for the league to worry about having enough clubs.

BILL STUMPF SIGNED.

Cliff Blankenship is going ahead with his plans for a topnotch ball club. Yesterday he added Bill Stumpf, Oaks' shortstop, to his list. Dutch Ruether, big league pitcher, was also added to the list. But Dutch suffered serious injuries to his hand in alighting from an automobile across the bay yesterday, so will probably not be in condition to play for several weeks.

With the addition of Stumpf and Ruether, Blankenship now has more league veterans on his club than any other club in the league. There will be Ping Bodie, Heinie Spencer, Rube Gardner, Rod Murphy, Bill Leard, Dutch Ruether, Bill Stumpf and Blank himself if he ever gets up ambition enough to do any real hard work.

REMMER HAS FAST TEAM.

Herb Remmer is not going very strong for the professional ball players in his lineup for the Maxwell Hardware club. Remmer's club is slated to meet the Southern Pacific team under the revised schedule, but the revised schedule brings Richmond and Pittsburg together for the opening game and means that one of those grounds must lie idle. Remmer will try to have the schedule changed tonight so that for the first few weeks at least both the Pittsburg and Richmond grounds can be used. If the schedule is fixed that way, the St. Mary's grounds here will be free by the time the clubs begin looking for more grounds in Oakland.

Remmer will probably start Pop Arlett on the mound in the first game. Buz Arlett will be his relief pitcher for the first week, with Joe Oeschger on the pitching list after next Sunday. Kilhullen and Remmer will be the Maxwell catchers, although if Crockett should come into the league Remmer would probably give that club first call on Kilhullen. Rod Allen who has been at Agnews this season, will play first for Remmer. Conger will play second; Claude Mitchell, third; Ralph Croll, shortstop, Park Wilson, utility infielder. Speed Gadsen, Bobby Smale and Kid Nelson will be Remmer's outfielders.

New Class B Club Is Not Weak Sister

Crystal Laundry Team Bears Out Theory That It Will Be Anybody's Race.

To pick the team that shapes up the strongest of the teams in the class B division would be like putting your hand into a big box full of coupons while blindfolded and trying to pick out your own number.

Never before in the class B division of Midwinter leagues were all the teams so evenly matched as are those that will make up the "Bee" division this season. It was thought that the Crystal Laundry nine would be the weaker of the lot at the start, since Manager Chicou had to build up an entirely new club and the other managers had the jump on him in getting players because the Crystals were not entered in the league until a couple of weeks after its organization.

Chicou has proved himself a hustling manager, however, and he has a club that is going to make them all step a bit. Although he has not announced his regular lineup for the opening game of the season next Sunday, it is believed that he will start off with the same lineup that gave the Santa Fe Improvers such a hot time last Sunday.

In Frenchie Laffargue and Scossofava he has a battery that compares favorably with any in the league. Their work together last season speaks well for them. His infield with the hard-hitting Allen Corbett on first, Fitzgerald on short, Scannel on second, and Cline, formerly of the Money Back Smith's, at third, should prove a great put-out machine when they work together a little more. Last Sunday was the first time that this combination worked together, and it showed well in spite of the newness.

Red Mitchell, Nelson and Newell are the outfield that Chicou has used and if he carries this trio in his class B struggle he need not have any worries about a good hitting ball club.

ROBINSON MEETS WILSON.

Sailor Harvey Wilson meets Willie Robinson in the main event on the association club's fight card across the bay tonight. Rex Morris and Jimie Ross will stage a return engagement in the special event. Other bouts on the card are as follows: Johnny Coughlin vs Bert Brown, Dick Brenton vs. Henry Bricker, George Bennett vs Joe Williams, Eddie Youle vs George Spencer, and Jack Leroy vs. Jack Goodrich.

UNDERSTAND THIS NOW! CATARRH CAN BE RELIEVED

S. S. S. Has Proven to Be a Blood Purifier That Will Cleanse the Vital Fluid and Carry Off the Impurities.

The very fact that Catarrh is often considered to be nothing more than a bad head-cold or inflammation of the membranes of the nose and throat has caused many people to go through years of suffering, who might have been fully restored to health had they realized that the supposed cold in the head was not a local trouble only, but that they had become infected with the germs of a complicated and dangerous disease.

It is true that Catarrh usually begins with a cold in the head, and this supposed cold may have been caused by infection through proximity to infected persons in a closed street car or room, inhaling the germs when someone coughed or sneezed; but, however the infection occurs, the poisons which are taken into your system, ultimately find their way into your blood and the supposed cold becomes a constitutional trouble that will affect every part of your body. The poisoned blood circulating through your system will carry these germs to the very source of your vitality.

Look out for these symptoms, for there is no more annoying or dangerous disease than Catarrh. There's a continual discharge from the nostrils, buzzing in the ears that grows worse and worse, sometimes leading to deafness, scabs in the nostrils, headaches, dripping in the throat, constant hawking and spitting, and in certain stages of the disease the odor from the breath is very offensive.

Catarrh is usually worse in winter because of over-heated rooms and offices, and because the low temperature prevents the little relief that healthy sweating will give. The poison vitiated air in stuffy rooms is breathed over and over—in fact, the daily habits of men and women in winter are faithful allies of this disease. As the blood circulates through the body, it carries Catarrh germs into the stomach, causing chronic dyspepsia; it affects the kidneys and bladder; it weakens the general health and causes loss of appetite. The sufferer feels despondent and half-sick most of the time, but the greatest danger lies in the fact that if the Catarrh is not checked, the lungs may become involved, terminating in Consumption, the most insidious of all diseases.

Don't expect to permanently cure Catarrh with sprays, lotions and salves or medicated cigarette smoking. They give only temporary relief. S. S. S. is the best treatment for Catarrh, because it goes right into the blood and assists it in removing the catarrhal poison and at the same time builds up the entire system by its fine tonic effect. S. S. S. is a purely vegetable remedy and not injurious to the system, like mineral medicines are.

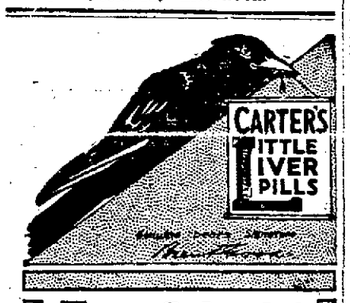

Catarrh sufferers will find the consulting department helpful in advising local treatment to be used with S. S. S. Don't hesitate to write them, and if you have the symptoms of Catarrh or a cold that is hanging on, go immediately to your druggist and get a bottle of S. S. S. SAWS OUT OF JAIL; MAN HUNT IS ON

MODESTO, Oct. 31.—Maurice Goff, Ripon butcher, convicted of the murder of Earl Polley, Keichs bank manager, and sentenced to life imprisonment, sawed his way out of the county jail shortly after midnight last night and is now the subject of a State-wide search. Goff's escape was discovered at 7 o'clock this morning when other prisoners pounded on their cell doors and notified the sheriff. Robert Henlon, a 21-year-old youth convicted of a theft of a motorcycle, aided Goff in his escape and fled with the convicted murderer. Sheriff Davis has sworn in several hundred deputies.

Goff and his accomplice sawed two bars off the lower part of his cell door and gained entrance to the corridor. He then sawed two bars off an outside window, tied two blankets together and let himself and accomplice down to the ground on the side of the jail.

Mrs. Goff visited her husband at the jail yesterday afternoon.

Wife's Secrets Untold In Merrick Murder Trial

Husband, on Stand, Said He Was Not Sorry For Killing of Soldier

Because Mrs. Gladys Merrick never told her husband the details of her relations with her soldier boy, Corporal A. E. Stedman, whom Merrick shot and killed when he found the soldier with his wife on the night of August 19, in their room, she was saved the ordeal of telling it to the jury today on the witness stand at her husband's trial.

She admitted that when her husband came home before his usual time, having finished his work at the Southern Pacific pier where he was employed as telegraph operator, the door was bolted on the inside, and Stedman was there. It was 11 o'clock at night. When her husband called to her she went and let him in.

"How were you dressed?" Attorney Lin Church asked.

"I had on a kimono. My shoes may have been off. I suppose my hair was disheveled; I do not know."

When her husband came in, she said, he went directly to the closet and hung up his coat. Then he walked into the living room. He saw Stedman.

Her story of the trouble and the events leading up to it, as it was brought out by her examination, virtually is as follows:

"This is Art," Mrs. Merrick said to him.

"So this is Merrick," Stedman replied. "I have heard of you."

"What are you doing here?" Merrick demanded. "There is the door. Get out."

"Yes, for God's sake get your hat and go," Mrs. Merrick urged.

Stedman came into the living room and leaned against the piano, apparently not wishing to go. Merrick began berating him, denouncing him as a disgrace to the army whose uniform he wore.

SIGNED FOR TROUBLE.

"When I put on this uniform I signed for trouble," said Stedman.

After the scene held for a few moments during which Merrick denounced the intruder with all the wrath that the siuation had caused him to feel, he turned and went to the closet and put on his coat, declaring that if the soldier intended to remain he would go himself.

Mrs. Merrick followed him to the closet, the soldier behind her. More words passed between them, and the woman, fearing they were going to fight, leaned against the wall and began to cry.

"Come to me, little girl," said Stedman, reaching his arms to her.

Merrick reached into the closet and secured the gun. The wife, stepped between them and grasped the revolver.

"Let him alone. He is a coward and afraid to shoot," said Stedman.

There was a report. Stedman walked to the outer door and fell dead.

Together they picked him up and carried him to the bed.

"Go and call a doctor," Merrick directed his wife.

Merrick, in his examination, declared that he wanted to do for the wounded soldier "as much as he would do for a dog that was hurt."

"Did you know it was wrong to kill a man," the district attorney had asked Merrick.

"Under those circumstances, no," Merrick replied.

"You intended to kill him?"

"I did."

The wife's testimony directly corroborated that of Merrick in regard to all the incidents leading up to the tragedy. She had met the soldier at Clio in the early part of the year, when he was doing guard duty and she was visiting her parents, who have a store in the Plumas county town. After her husband secured his regular work at the Oakland pier, they came to Oakland to live. One day Merrick found a letter from the soldier to his wife, in which he addressed her as "My Darling," and referred to her as "My Little Love Wife."

"I am not much of a poet," it said, "but when I see you again I will make 'Oh, Johnnie' look sick."

The letter was the cause of a scene between husband and wife, during which he accused her of misconduct, which she denied. After she had protested her innocence of wrong conduct, and promised never again to see the soldier, they forgave each other and resolved to leave the incident in the past.

FOUND SOLDIER THERE.

Again on the Saturday night before the shooting the subject of Stedman came up between them. She had gone to San Francisco to see a parade of soldiers at the Presidio. She had promised not to see Stedman. When they were home again that night she admitted having seen him. Merrick declared his belief that his wife loved the soldier. She admitted that she did. Merrick wrote an order for his wages, declared she should have "her soldier boy" and started out.

But he didn't want to go. He hesitated, and asked her again if she loved him, and not the soldier. Again and again he sought her assurance that she would forget Stedman.

The next morning he went to his work happy in the promise given.

That night he came home to find the soldier there.

All through the defendant's direct examination he sought to keep from the jury his belief that his wife had been intimate with her soldier lover. But on the cross-examination in reply to the direct question of the district attorney he admitted that when he came into the room and found them there under the circumstances he lost his faith.

"But you have agreed that if you are acquitted you will take her back", the district attorney demanded.

"I will," he said. "For the baby's sake we will forget it and try again."

It was the baby, a pretty three-year-old girl, that kept their home from going on the rocks every time the Stedman subject came up between them. "For the baby's sake," they forgave. "For the baby's sake," the wife and mother promised over again that she would not see the soldier. But the love she bore the soldier kept their frail bark ever near the rocks, where it finally struck that night of tragedy.

MEDIATORS GET HELP FROM NORTH

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31. — The United States Labor Mediation Board, which has had under consideration for the past ten days the problem of a uniform wage scale, closed or open shop, working conditions and the handling of so-called unfair or non-union material by members of the Shipworkers' Union, went into session today with the new associate members from Portland and Seattle who arrived last night. The new members will work with Chairman Macy and his confreres Berres and Coolidge, and Judge W. H. Fogle of Seattle, H. S. Hedges of Seattle, James B. Kerr of Portland and A. S. Gunn of San Francisco for the employers, and James A. Taylor, George Sanforcon of Seattle, James Morrison of Portland and R. W. Burton, San Francisco, for the employees.

Early in the week Chairman Macy promised a decision by the board by noon tomorrow, which would iron away all future difficulties between the Iron Trades Council and members of the metal crafts on the Pacific coast.

It is rumored that an increase graduated from 20 to 27½ per cent over the temporary wage agreement which was adopted as a result of the efforts of a special mediation board headed by Gavin McNab, will be the result.

KILLED BY FALL

ALAMEDA, Oct. 31. — Joseph H. Cappran of 824 Pacific avenue was killed in San Francisco yesterday afternoon. He fell into the hold of a ship on which he was working as a carpenter. Cappran was a native of England, 71 years old. He left a wife and family of adult children. The funeral services will be held in San Francisco Saturday.

TO FACE CHARGE

W. B. Cianciarulo, 1016 Castro street, was to have gone to Camp Lewis Friday morning with the Oakland contingent, to be a soldier. But instead he will remain to face a charge of manslaughter for running down and killing Walter N. Parks, a Richmond business man in that city several days ago.

Cianciarulo was released on bonds of $2000 after the accident. Then he was summoned to go north. District Attorney T. D. Johnston of Contra Costa county communicated with Adjutant General Boree at Sacramento and division board No. 5 over the long distance telephone, and arranged to have his name stricken from the list.

The authorities say the Oakland man was driving his automobile on the wrong side of the road.

TRENCH WORK IS SHOWN AT CAMP

CAMP LEWIS, Oct. 31.—It is the pick and shovel for the boys of the 362d Regiment, including a great many of the men from Oakland and San Francisco. They are building a model of the western front, digging deep in the gravelly soil, laying heavy timbers and stringing the wire entanglements. Boys who would shirk at digging sewers or swinging a pick on the section lay hold with all the enthusiasm in the world, and like it.

They are making the front line and the reserve and the communicating trenches as nearly like the real thing as can be designed, and when they are all finished they will begin practice at "going over the top," leaping the entanglements, slamming away with the bayonet and all the rest of the game they will be called upon to play when they muster in for the real thing.

Two hundred and thirty men of the Ninety-first Division were mustered out today, discharged at Camp Lewis because of physical unfitness.

The Liberty Bond sale at the camp totaled $1,302,000. The 348th Field Artillery led the other units with a subscription of $108,850. Officers and men are busy on the muster roll ready for pay. The men will receive six weeks' pay, totaling over $1,000,000 for the camp.

Today begins the football season, when twelve teams from as many regiments will meet in six games. Before the season is over a total of 132 games will be played. The winner of the pennant for the camp will be determined by percentages of games won. Huge score boards will be erected on which to keep the score for the series.

VICE PROBE COMING.

SEATTLE, Oct. 31.—A thorough investigation into the alleged vice conditions of Seattle is deemed certain today with the support of Mayor H. C. Gill promised city councilmen who propose to introduce a resolution at next Monday's meeting of that body asking Major General H. A. Greene, commanding Camp Lewis, to name "those high in authority" who are operating such a vice ring here.

Major-General Greene alleges that soldier-police have gathered evidence that 2200 women are employd here by the ring and that "men high in authority" are profiting by the operation of these women as well as from gamblers and bootleggers.

MAYOR BACKS MOVE.

Mayor Gill has lined himself up strongly behind Councilman R. H. Thompson's proposed resolution asking that this evidence be furnished, together with the names of the men in authority. Gill declared, also, that if on investigation it was found he had been so derelict in his office as to permit such a system he would resign to "make way for a man the council considered could better handle the situation."

The local municipal league, meeting Tuesday afternoon, adopted a resolution calling upon the council to investigate the alleged vice conditions.

TERRIBLY SICK WOMAN

Surgical Operation Thought Necessary, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Saved Her.

Madison, Wis.—"I was a terribly sick woman for over three years. I suffered with terrible pains in my back and was about to have an operation when a friend said to me, 'Before having that operation just try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.' So I let the operation wait, and my husband bought me the Vegetable Compound and it has made me a well woman and we have a lovely baby girl. We cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough, and I hope this letter will lead other suffering women to try it."—Mrs. BENJAMIN F. BLAKE, R.F.D. No. 5, Box 22, Madison, Wis.

There must be more than a hundred thousand women in this country who, like Mrs. Blake, have proven what wonders Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound can do for weak and ailing women. Try it and see for yourself.

All women are invited to write for free and helpful advice to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass.

HAVE 'CANDY DAY'

BERKELEY, Oct. 31. — A "Candy Day," when sweets will be collected for soldiers at the various camps, is being planned by the University Mothers' Club, of which Mrs. C. A. Tusch is president. Members of the club are pledging themselves to go without sugar in order to provide the enlisted men with sweets. "We all know that sugar is an essential and that the enlisted men must have it if they are to become good fighters," said Mrs. Tusch in announcing "candy day."

RED CROSS HEAD GUEST IN TOWN

furnished to 3000 military hospitals and surgical supplies to 2000 additional.

Davison declared that the Red Cross was attempting a membership of 15,000,000 members by January of 1918. The present membership he placed at 5,000,000 persons. Sums aggregating $14,000,000 have already been appropriated for the work in France and arrangements are being made, he declared, to send $3,500,000 to Italy this week.

"If there ever was a war in which there was no class distinction, a war in which rich and poor gave of their sons and their substance with equal sacrifice and equal patriotism, this is that war," he said.

Davison and his "flying squadron" are making the circuit of thirteen states to inform the people in those districts as to the work of the Red Cross and the manner in which the $100,000,000 required by their announcements, is being spent.

REBEKAHS TO AID

Members of East Bay Rebekah lodges are preparing for the entertainment that it to be given in San Francisco November 10 in honor of the enlisted men of the army and navy. Twenty thousand invitations have been issued by the subordinate lodges of Odd Fellows. The affair will include tableaux and a dance and will be given in the Civic Auditorium. Mrs. Julia Miller, district deputy of this city, has charge of the work of assuring the guests that there will be plenty of dance partners.

TO GIVE CONCERT

Oakland music lovers will have their first opportunity tomorrow night to hear on this side of the bay the San Francisco Chamber Music Society in the first of a series of four concerts in Ebell Hall. The program will consist of Mozart's string quartet in C major, Schumann's piano quintet and Beethoven's charming serenade for flute, violin and viola.

GIRLS! LOTS OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR

A Small Bottle of "Danderine" Makes Hair Thick, Glossy and Wavy.

Removes All Dandruff, Stops Itching Scalp and Falling Hair.

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderine.

It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now — it costs but a few cents — all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance, freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you can not find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp—Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower, destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this.—Advertisement.

PLEDGE DAY IN SCHOOLS.

Yesterday was food pledge day in the public schools of California. Every child in the primary and grammar grades and every student in the high schools of Alameda and San Francisco counties took home food pledges which they were requested to return today duly filled out and signed by their mother or father. In this way Ralph T. Merritt, food administrator for California, hopes to obtain 100,000 signed pledges in the next twenty-four hours. The teachers are co-operating in this work, and are giving time in the midst of recitations to tell the pupils of the vital need for food conservation.

President Ray Lyman Wilbur of Leland Stanford University and Mrs. Shelly Tolhurst made a whirlwind campaign yesterday through the high schools of Oakland and San Francisco with the message of food conservation. Archbishop Hanna has sent out a request that all parochial schools observe Food Pledge Day.

Merritt is notifying all workers throughout California today to send in at once the food pledges already accumulated, and not to wait until the last moment. This will facilitate the final counting of the pledges. At a luncheon to be given this afternoon to the visiting Congressional delegation the number of pledges already secured in this State will be announced.

OAKLAND GUARD AIDS.

At an enthusiastic meeting of the Oakland Guard, the oldest military organization in the State of California, the entire membership of more than 700 pledged themselves to support the Food Administration. Judge H. W. Pulcifer, Major Charles F. Poulter, Lieutenant H. H. Hoyt, F. W. Gartner, Martin Ryan and R. J. Cavasso were the speakers last evening.

J. R. Tregloan gave reminiscences of the stirring times the Oakland Guard experienced during the Civil War.

Henry Maloon proposed that the silk flag that was made for the Oakland Guard by the ladies of Oakland in 1862, which is the oldest National Guard flag in the State of California, be presented to the museum of the City of Oakland.

The Oakland Guard will hold a patriotic reunion and entertainment the latter part of November. All members and their families are requested to attend.

MILLIONS ANSWER CALL.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31—America's housewives are answering the call to mobilize their kitchen for the war. Food headquarters announced today that 2,722,918 families had pledged themselves to household economy and the conservation of supplies during the first two days of Food Saving Week.

Totals thus far are based on meager returns from one or two districts in each state. A Colorado unit with as many pledges signed in a day as had been expected in a week—17,232—leads the list. But encouraging prospect is nation-wide, despite cold, snows and rains.

Virginia leads all states with 107,000 pledges. Maine is second, 90,000; Indiana, third, 85,000, and Adkansas, fourth, 82,000. A spurt of activity in the last named state obtained 70,000 signers in one day.

RED CROSS HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

forfeit all personal grievances, and put self into the background. Every ounce of energy we possess must go into the work that we are doing. What has to be done is really beyond our comprehension. It will be up to the Red Cross alone to supply all surgical dressing and hospital supplies.

"Oakland is one of the finest chapters on the Pacific coast. At first I thought that it was going to be hopeless, but it has turned out a splendid organization. Never have you failed to respond instantly to any appeal that I have made."

C. J. O'Connor, director of the Bureau of Civilian Relief, spoke briefly on that phase of the Red Cross work.

The local branch of the Red Cross has received from general headquarters an urgent request for surgical dressing. The request is based on a cable received from General Murphy, in charge of Red Cross activities in the war zone, which reads:

"The Red Cross has direct responsibility of supplying us with surgical dressings, and nothing in the whole situation here is equally important. Red Cross standard dressings in millions must be sent over with all possible speed. If this is not done and done immediately a serious calamity and national disgrace is inevitable. The American women who compose the Red Cross chapters should prepare with all the enthusiasm and speed possible the dressings which are going to mean life or death to our own men. This whole question deals with the most vital thing that the women of America can do for the soldiers in this war."

At the local headquarters preparations are being made to conform to respond to the request and many volunteer workers are needed. It is desired that all women who have spare time report to headquarters and arrange to contribute their services for as many hours a day as is possible.

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 31.—Many Scandinavian ships are being detained in port here as sailing is impossible, due to the lack of permits from the allies.

NAVAL GUNNERS SANK SUBMARINE

AN ATLANTIC PORT, Oct. 31.—Three hours before the American steamship Lewis Luckenbach was torpedoed and sunk by an unseen submarine on October 11, naval gunners aboard the vessel planted a shot between the twin periscopes of an enemy submarine and sent her to the bottom, according to an officer of the Luckenbach who arrived here today.

The officer, who hails from Brockton, Mass., expressed surprise that the fact had not become known in the United States, and declared that American naval officers on the other side knew of the incident and conceded the sinking of the under sea boat.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 31.—J. E. McNeil of Plainville, Mass., who was a member of the armed guard, seven members of the crew and a French pilot, all of whom were reported missing when the American steamer Lewis Luckenbach was sunk, have been given up as lost.

MARKET COMMENT

Trade continued active in apples this morning in the local markets, several large orders being sent from the local commission houses to out of town sellers. Poultry arrivals were weaker than yesterday, with the result tha a large portion of present stock was cleaned out. This, however, is not necessarily significant, as another shipment is expected in tomorrow, and as Wednesday trade, in preparation for the Saurday business, is always raher heavier in poultry than at the beginning of the week.

Malaga grapes rose 25 cents and muscats dropped off that figure as Malagas became scarcer on the market and new arrivals of muscats brought down price of that variety. Honeydew melons are more plentiful, and took a slight drop as a result, while cantaloupes are entirely off the market, and casabas about the same as at the beginning of the week.

HEAVY SELLING LOWERS PRICES

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—A heavy selling movement on the stock exchange today sent prices of leading stocks down from one to three points. Blocks of 5000 and 10,000 shares were thrown on the market. The trading in steel stocks was especially heavy.

AFTERNOON—There was selling of United States Steel common on a large scale, about a dozen houses putting out 100,000 shares in all, on which the price dropped to 99⅝. Bethlehem Steel B sold down over three points and the other steel industrials suffered losses of from one to three points.

United States Steel repeated its recent minimum of 99⅛ in the afternoon and other prominent stocks showed further losses. In the final hour there was a brisk and general rally of 1 to 4 points, led by shippings and rails.

CLOSING—Rallies of two to five points irregular. Marine preferred, after selling at 97½, rallying to 99 and then again sold below 98. Atlantic Gulf sold down two points to 96. Union Pacific was one of the most active of the railroads, declining 1⅛ to 116½, while Canadian Pacific fell 1¾ to 132.

SHIP PLAN ORDERED TO TOP SPEED

The United States will turn out 1,000,000 tons of shipping in the next four months and by the end of 1918 not less than 6,000,000 tons will have been constructed, Chairman Hurley of the shipping board announced in Washington this afternoon.

The new goal will necessitate the operation of steel plants and shipyards at maximum capacity on a 24-hour basis.

"Red tape" of every sort is to be eliminated and the forces of labor and the shipping industry are to be more closely coordinated to meet the nation's need for more tonnage.

The new program, calling for vastly increased tonnage, was outlined today by Chairman Hurley at a "get-together" conference between government officials and the representatives of labor and shipbuilding. The conference was one of the most important war gatherings since America's entrance into the war. Attending were spokesmen of seventeen of the largest shipyards on the Atlantic coast. They pledged utmost co-operation with the government, as did labor's representatives, on the new plans formulated for production and increased efficiency.

Chairman Hurley declared that the greatest possible speed was now essential in shipyards and that every interest connected with the great projects now under way or those to be set going later, must work hereafter with a purpose to make ships a winning factor in the war.

Construction of concrete ships is the purpose of the Golden Gate Shipbuilding Company, articles of incorporation of which have been filed by Victor O. Post and C. Bruno Carlson of Oakland, J. E. Pemberton of Berkeley, and Herman Verde, Thomas W. Firby, A. C. McNamara and A. G. Kazebeer of San Francisco. One hundred thousand shares at a par value of $10 each is the capitalization figure given in the incorporation papers.

According to Pemberton, the company has options on two locations for its yard, one on the east side of the bay and one on the west side. Selection will be made after organization is completed. Pemberton said that the company's first move will be to complete its possession of a new and greatly improved process of making reinforced concrete ships, and that he feels certain that the process will make practicable the construction of concrete ships of large size and ocean-going ability.

How and When to Mail Bundle to Soldier Lad

If you are planning to send a Christmas package to some soldier boy who is with the American expeditionary forces in France, you must mail it in Oakland before November 10, according to an announcement made today by Postmaster J. J. Rosborough. This early date is essential, inasmuch as the transport of thousands of packages will tax the facilities provided for that purpose.

The weight of parcel post packages destined for American soldiers in France has been reduced from a maximum of 20 pounds to a maximum of 7 pounds. This is because the French railroad companies will not handle single packages weighing more than seven pounds.

Christmas packages should be carefully packed in corrugated cardboard containers to insure safe transportation. In the preparation of these packages, the usual rules will be suspended, and original sealed packages of tobacco, toilet articles and other supplies can be included all under the same classification.

SUPERVISE MILLS

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Administrative supervision over the operation of all flour mills in the United States will be assumed by the milling division of the United States Food Administration, effective November 1, it was announced here today. This action will be taken under President Wilson's proclamation of October 8.

SCHOOL LADS STRIKE WHEN ASKED TO SING

BERKELEY, Oct. 31. — Because vocal chords refused to obey their owners and persisted in ranging of their own volition from wheelbarrow squeaks to trombone bass, the boys of the Oxford school singing classes have threatened to go on strike. They decided not to sing and signed pledges to that effect because, they declare, their voices are in the process of adolescent change and are liable to produce weird and unlooked-for results when raised in song. So embarrassing did this finally become to the youthful choristers whose voices are "breaking" that they called a meeting after a recent singing lesson and solemnly took oath not to endure it longer. The leader of the malcontents is said to be a boy whose voice is in such a state of uncontrol that he sings the scale on one note.

After the non-singing pledge had been signed by about a score of the boys, their grievance was brought to the attention of their singing teacher, Miss Mabel Wilson, and Mrs. Clara N. Partridge, principal of the school. The threatened strike was discussed in a talk between the teachers and the boys, who returned to their singing-class meantime, on being told that they would not be compelled to sing if they did not want to.

"The whole disturbance arose because of one 'problem boy' at the school, who would not sing and induced some of his companions to sign a pledge to follow his example," said Mrs. Partridge. "They did this, I believe, after a singing lesson, but did not carry their pledge into effect for they sang next day as usual. The trouble is now settled. We do not compel boys to sing if they don't want to and there was no necessity for any such action on the part of the pupils."

YOUTH IS HELD

Wanted in Vacaville on a charge of burglary, Jesse Simmons, 18 years of age, is held in the city prison pending the arrival of Vacaville authorities. The youth is accused of breaking into a room and taking a quantity of jewelry.

Frank J. Lee and Henry Schmidt, who were arrested last night in San Francisco by Inspectors Drew, McCarthy and Quigley, were today charged with having robbed the home of Martin Duffy, at 827 Fifty-fifth street, on October 20.

MOTHERS IN DISPUTE ON ARMY SOCKS

Will the members of the University Mothers' Club darn the socks and mend the lingerie of the students in the army aviation school at Berkeley? Will they provide the candy and sweets which the palates of the birdmen-in-the-making crave?

Upon the answer to these perplexing questions hinges the future of the club. Mrs. C. A. Tusch, founder and president of the only university parent association in the United States says that the members will. The members say that they will not. At present there is a deadlock. In the meantime the student aviators are mending and darning themselves.

It was a beautiful plan which Mrs. Tusch made before presenting it to the commandant in the Berkeley school. He was exceedingly glad to welcome anything which would keep his men smart and comfortable.

With rare gallantry he granted the privilege of needlewomen to the school to the president of the University Mothers' Club. But she had not remembered to consult her membership before offering their services to the very prosaic task of filling up rough, masculine socks in heels and toes. Mrs. Tusch arranged that the lingerie should be collected and brought to the regular gatherings of mothers when it would be apportioned fairly and without favor among them. The members refuse to consider its apportionment.

They have boys and girls of their own whom they mend and darn for. They do not quite see the splendid patriotic duty as their president saw it. They have told her so. They hold that they are not organized to take care of an army but the students who are striving to complete an education and training in the university of California. The members quote sections of their constitution and by-laws. Mrs. Tusch points to the men who are struggling to conquer the air that they may conquer an enemy.

The deadlock remains. So do the holes.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Closing of the Elgin, Ill., butter board is under consideration by the administration. The Agriculture Department's bureau of meats has already been asked to perform the board's functions. The final decision in the matter is shortly to be made by the food administration, it was officially stated today.

Announcement was made that the regular monthly meeting of the manufacturers' organization, which is set for the first Thursday of each month, has been postponed until November 8.

AUSTRIA WAR COST

ZURICH, Oct. 31.—In case the war continues until the end of June, 1918, Austria's share in war expenditures will total $12,000,000,000, according to Baron Ernest von Plener, who made the statement in the budget debate in the upper house of the Austrian Reichsrath.

The speaker stated that the note circulation had reached a total much higher than any one expected and that Austria would have to suffer from a low rate of exchange.

A William and Mary design in Jacobean finish—a great big value, exactly as illustrated. The chairs have the extreme high back and are of select quarter-sawed oak, and have a slip seat, covered with genuine leather. (Five regular chairs and one large arm carver). The table is also of solid oak and has a 45-inch top, extends to 6 feet, has a perfect slide extension that is guaranteed not to bind.

An entire floor set aside for dining-room furniture—the best period designs and finishes. An unusually large display and properly shown, completely set up in room effects. Sets with the new style buffets—where the mirror hangs separate from the base. Odd tables and pieces of rare decorative value. We want you to see this display, arranged especially for the Thanksgiving and later holiday trade.
